How long will it take?

All applications for migration are assessed in the order they are received by this office. The global processing time service standard (i.e. from the time we receive your application until a decision is made) for a partner (prospective marriage) visa (Subclass 300) is 12 months.

Individual cases may be decided in longer or shorter periods than the service standard, depending on a range of factors, including individual circumstances and the complexity of each case.

Should I provide original documents?

Generally, no. Do not provide original documents unless specifically requested. You should provide 'certified copies' of original documentation. Documents not in English must be accompanied by accredited English translations. 'Certified copies' are copies authorised, or stamped as being true copies of originals, by a person or agency recognised by the law of the country in which you currently reside.

PLEASE NOTE: Original documents must be provided for any Police Certificates or Consent letters that are requested.

What if my circumstances change after I lodge my visa?

If there are any changes in your circumstances following lodgement of your application, you are obliged to inform us about them. You may use Form 1022 Notification of Changes in Circumstances for this purpose.

What if I marry my fiancé before I am granted the visa?

If you marry your fiancé before you are granted this visa, you must write to the department requesting that your application be withdrawn and changed to an application for a Partner (subclasses 309 and 100) visa. You must provide evidence of your marriage, such as a certified copy of the extract from the relevant marriage registry office.
