Remarks:

1. The applicant has to submit his/her application by him/herself. . (All the documents issued by a government authority should be submitted in original)

2. Please make another set of copies (legible) of all documents mentioned above (front and back). Documents have to be arranged in the above order and submitted into 2 separated files.

3. Minimum age of both partners must be 21 years old. (18 years old if you and your partner have lived together at least 1 year before your arrival in Belgium)

4. Additional documents, even if not featured in the list above, may be required by the Embassy.

5. The visa fee is non-refundable if the visa is denied.

6. You can submit your application at the earliest three months before your planned visit

7. The type of visa is a C-type visa (short stay). Once the cohabitation is registered in Belgium the applicant will receive a Belgian residence card with which he/she can stay in Belgium;

8. The type of visa that we issue for cohabitation is a type C/Schengen visa. In general, for type C/Schengen visa, a return flight ticket is required. However, as an exception, for cohabitation, a one way flight ticket is sufficient for the Belgian authorities. As all airlines staff members are not always aware of this exception, if you have bought/want to buy a one-way flight ticket, we advise you to take contact with the airline before departure and check if they will let you board the aircraft.

9. The non EU-citizen has to prove that he/she is officially living in Belgium since more than 1 year.

10. Please note that the city hall in Belgium might require your original legalized birth certificate upon your registration in Belgium.

11. A later change to the purpose of the visit is not admissible. A prolongation of the visa is not possible. In both cases, a new application has to be entered.
