

Liberté • Égalité • Fraternité

RÉPUBLIQUE FRANÇAISE

Ambassade de France aux Philippines

VISA SCHENGEN – SHORT STAY Marriage in France with a French National

ATTENTION :

- Processing will take a maximum of 2 months
- The visa, if approved, will only be valid for a maximum stay of 90 days. Once married, the applicant must return to his/her country of residence to apply for a long stay visa that will allow him/her to permanently settle in France.

* Documents must be in TWO COMPLETE SETS (Original and Photocopy) and must be arranged in the CORRECT ORDER, specified below:

- Signed Schengen visa application form with photo (35mm x 45mm, white background)
- Valid passport (3 months' validity from the end of intended stay), photocopy of biopage, valid and former visas, pages of the passport with Immigration stamps and previous refusal stamps, if any
- Certificate of the “Publication des bans et non-opposition à mariage” delivered by the City Hall where the couple intends to celebrate the marriage
- Proof of nationality of the French fiancé/fiancée: National Identity Card
- Evidence of the means of financial support
- Attestation d’Accueil or Hotel Reservation
- Letter from the future French spouse explaining his/her intention of marriage and describing the circumstances of their first meeting
- Copy of the passport of the future French spouse (data page with photo and pages with exit and entry immigration stamps of the Philippines, if applicable)
- Round trip flight reservation/booking
- An international travel insurance (medical expenses and repatriation) covering the entire period of the person’s intended stay and valid for all Schengen states. Minimum coverage should be EUR 30,000
- Visa fee

I attest that I have submitted the documents marked above and I have been informed that some documents from this list are missing.

Date / Name and Signature of Applicant: _____

This list and the visa application form are available on the website of the VFS GLOBAL :
www.vfsglobal.com/France/Philippines

Mise à jour le 17 mars 2017