In order to promote the movement of young people seeking to learn different traditions and cultures, give the citizens of Contracting States the opportunity to enter another Contracting State for cognitive purposes, on holiday in the territory of that State, together with the right to study or work, the Government of the Republic of Lithuania has signed the following treaties.

- with the Government of Canada on youth exchanges;
- with the Government of New Zealand on a program for working on vacation;
- with the Government of Japan on a program for working on vacation.

You must submit the following documents:

Foreigner who enters the Republic of Lithuania in accordance with the provisions of international treaties to which the Republic of Lithuania is a participant

1. A request for the issue of a national visa, completed by electronic means for completing the application.

The application must be completed in Latin characters, printed and submitted together with the documents for a visa. You can fill in the application on the website: <https://visa.vrm.lt/epm/>

2. Valid travel document;

A valid travel document must meet the following requirements:

- must be issued in the last ten years;
- must contain at least two blank pages;
- Travel document validity term must be at least 3 months longer than the requested visa validity term;

3. 1 color photo (35x45 mm, white background, taken within last 6 months);

4. Mediation letter from the institution, company or organization of the Republic of Lithuania submitted electronically. (The number of mediation letter must be indicated for the visa service).

The mediation letter must be submitted only in cases when, in accordance with the provisions of international treaties, the foreigner is going to work according to a preliminary arranged employment contract, internship, practice according to prior agreement or engage in other activities in the legal entity of the Republic of Lithuania;

The mediation letter is provided through the Information system of public services related to the issue of personal and other documents, consultations for citizens in the Republic of Lithuania and foreigners (EPIS).

5. Documents referred to in an international treaty, or, if not specified, documents confirming the purpose and conditions of entry specified in the international treaty:

- You are a Canadian citizen and you intend to arrive under an agreement between the Government of the Republic of Lithuania and the Government of Canada on youth exchanges;

Canadian citizens may enter the Republic of Lithuania if they are:

- young citizens, including graduates of university and non-university higher education institutions or research institutions, willing to improve their qualifications in the host country under a employment contract arranged in advance in order to gain greater career prospects and show that they have a employment contract arranged in advance;
- registered students of university and non-university higher education institutions or research institutions in their country willing to take part in their academic study programme as a pre-agreed traineeship or work practice in the host country, including, under contracts concluded between educational institutions and providing documents to demonstrate prior registration or enrolment at a university, non-university higher education institution or research establishment or demonstrating that they are travelling for an internship or work practice;

- young citizens, including registered students who intend to travel in the host country, where their presence is related to tourism and cultural cognitive activities and occasionally work, to supplement their financial resources, and who confirm their intentions.

Participation in the youth exchanges program is allowed for up to two times and only if citizens meet the requirements of the two different categories listed. The periods of stay must be interrupted by a break. The duration of each stay may not exceed one year.

Citizens of Canada intending to enter the Republic of Lithuania under the youth exchange program at the time of application for a national visa must be 18 – 35 years old; have a valid passport and a return ticket or have sufficient financial resources to buy it; to travel to the Republic of Lithuania alone (without dependents); prove that they have sufficient financial resources to meet their needs at the start of the stay; to pay all required fees, charges and taxes; have health insurance for the entire period of stay in Lithuania.

Temporary residence permits and work permits during the legal stay may be issued to Canadian citizens who have the right to use the youth exchange program and who hold a multiple-entry national visa issued on that basis upon their arrival in the Republic of Lithuania.

- You are a New Zealand citizen and you intend to come under the agreement of the government of the Republic of Lithuania and the Government of New Zealand on the work holiday program;
