

Caribbean visa

Visas for the Caribbean parts of the Kingdom of the Netherlands

As of 10 October 2010 it is possible to visit more than one Caribbean part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands using a single non-Schengen visa. The visa is valid for all parts of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the Caribbean for a visit as a tourist or for a short stay in the countries Aruba, Curaçao and St Maarten and for the Dutch Caribbean islands Bonaire, St Eustatius and Saba.

If you need a visa for the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the Caribbean and how to apply:

Applying for a visa for the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the Caribbean

(<http://www.government.nl/issues/visa-for-the-netherlands-and-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom#ref-minbuza>)

Countries whose nationals do not require a visa for the Caribbean part of the Kingdom

(<http://www.government.nl/issues/visa-for-the-netherlands-and-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom#ref-minbuza>)

Visa exemption categories (Caribbean region) (<http://www.government.nl/issues/visa-for-the-netherlands-and-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom#ref-minbuza>)

Do you have any questions about visas for the Caribbean?

Contact the Dutch embassy or consulate in your country. [[Addresses and contact details can be found on this site]] .

You can also contact the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in The Hague, by email: DCM-INFO-VV@minbuza.nl, or by telephone: +31 (0)70 348 5622 (Monday to Friday 09.00 – 12.30 and 13.30 – 16.30).

For requirements click here:

<http://www.government.nl/issues/visa-for-the-netherlands-and-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom/visas-for-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom-of-the-netherlands/how-to-apply-for-a-visa-for-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom-of-the-netherlands> application form: Click here (<http://www.government.nl/issues/visa-for-the-netherlands-and-the-caribbean-parts-of-the-kingdom/documents-and-publications/forms/2012/10/15/visa-application-form-kingdom-of-the-netherlands-in-the-caribbean.html>)

