

- Temporary work visas allow bearers to engage in a paid professional activity, in Portugal, from 1 month to up to 3 years, either under contract to an employer or for self-employment.
- Applications are processed at Consulate and forwarded to the Portuguese Immigration authorities for consideration. A final answer may be received within 1 or 2 months. If application is approved, a visa will be issued by the Consulate.
- Accompanying family members who are nationals of countries that require Schengen visas must apply for a short stay visa and adjust their status with Portuguese Immigration authorities (SEF) once in Portugal. Short stay visas do not allow holders to engage in paid activities in Portugal.

Accompanying family members who are nationals of countries that do not require Schengen visas must enter the country using their passport (without a visa) and adjust their status with Portuguese Immigration authorities (SEF) once in Portugal
