

Medical Visa requirements – Embassy of Belgium 10/02/16

Requirements for Visa for Medical Care

This visa allows you to stay and receive medical care for the duration as indicated on your visa. To avoid any disappointment, applicants are advised to submit their complete files at least four (4) working weeks before the intended date of departure since these applications are sent to Home Office in Brussels for decision.

Required Documents:

1. A passport recognized by the Schengen country(ies) you intend to visit, valid for at least three months following the date of expiry of the requested visa + copy of bio data page and all pages of the passport with visas and stamps
2. Two (2) legibly and fully completed application forms, dated and signed with 2 recent colour passport pictures to be glued on the visa application form. Please do not forget to mention your legible e-mail address since the Embassy will only contact you by e-mail.
3. If you are non-Nigerian, you will have to prove that you are a legal resident in Nigeria.
4. An original and very recent medical certificate issued by one of our Embassy's recognized medical practitioners, stating that requested care is not available in Nigeria:

If you are a student: school attestation confirming your absence for that period and if you are below the age of 21 years, parental consent (from both parents) sworn before the Magistrate Court, allowing you to travel to Belgium and a birth certificate.

If you are travelling with only one of your parents then a sworn affidavit from the other parent allowing you to travel together with a passport ID page copy of both parents are mandatory. The proof of income of the parents will have to be submitted as supporting documents (see point 8).

10. Travel Health Insurance covering all Schengen countries for an amount of at least 30.000 €. Please check the website for the officially recognized companies.

A set of copies of all previous documents. Please note that the documents should be arranged in the above order, and be followed by their copies in the same exact order.

Since the processing time differs from case to case, it is advisable to apply in advance. These visa applications have to be submitted to the Home Office in Brussels, so processing time may be up to four (4) working weeks.

The verification of the submitted documents can delay or impede the issuance of the requested visa. These delays depend exclusively upon the instance that issued the documents.

When entering the Schengen territory, the Immigration Authorities may want to see any of the above-mentioned documents and/or proof of sufficient funds. If you cannot provide these, you risk being sent back home with the next flight, since you do not meet the conditions to enter the Schengen territory any more.

Any false statements or documents will lead to your application being rejected. Please note that an incomplete file may lead to a visa refusal.

A complete file does not either guarantee the issuance of a visa. Additional documents may be required to substantiate your visa request.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL BELGIUM APPLICANTS:

Increased fees for visa applications

Please note: As of 02 February 2020 the Schengen visa fee per person (Short Stay Visa) will increase from 60 to 80 euros or the equivalent amount in your local currency. For children between 6-12 years old the visa fee will increase to 40 euros or equivalent

As of 02 February 2020 travelers will be able to submit their visa applications up to 6 months ahead of the scheduled departure date. As a rule, applications shall be lodged no later than 15 calendar days before the start of the intended visit to the Schengen area.

Guarantees for return (assessment of migration risk): The applicant is requested to provide as much information as possible to document his/her family background, professional and socio-economic status, ownership of land or real estate (for instance: proof of family bonds with his/her country of origin, proof of regular income and stable source of revenues from the applicant and/or his/her partner, proof of property, etc.)

This information is essential to correctly judge the intention of the applicant to leave the Schengen area before the expiry of his/her visa.
