- (2) Short-term visas shall be issued for one, two or multiple entries in the Republic of Croatia.
- (3) The period of validity of short-term visas shall not exceed five years.
- (4) Short-term visas for multiple entries shall be issued with a period of validity between 6 months and 5 years, where the alien proves the following:
 1. the need, or justifies the intention to travel frequently and/or regularly, in particular as the result of business or family reasons, and
 2. his integrity and reliability, in particular the lawful use of previous visas, his economic situation in the country of origin and his genuine intention to leave the territory of the Republic of Croatia before the expiry of the visa applied for.
- (5) In the case of transit, the length of authorised stay shall correspond to the time necessary for the purpose of the transit.
- (6) The period of validity of the visa shall include an additional period of 15 days.
- (7) By way of derogation from paragraph 6 of this Article, such an additional period shall not be granted on the grounds of public policy.
- (8) A visa issued is not a guarantee that entry to the Republic of Croatia is to be granted to an alien.

Cooperation with commercial agents and outside service providers

Article 15

- (1) Commercial agents and/or outside service providers may take part in the collection of visa applications as prescribed in subordinate legislation regulating the issuing of visas.
- (2) Outside service providers may also collect biometric data from visa applicants as prescribed in subordinate legislation regulating the issuing of visas.

Article 16

- (1) Aliens requiring a visa to enter the Republic of Croatia shall obtain such visa prior to their entry into the Republic of Croatia.
- (2) Visas are issued by diplomatic missions or consular posts of the Republic of Croatia, and may also be issued by a diplomatic mission or consular post of another state with which the Republic of Croatia concluded an agreement on representation in the issuing of visas.
- (3) Before a visa is issued, the diplomatic mission or consular post shall request prior approval of the ministry competent for foreign affairs in cases stipulated in subordinate legislation.
- (4) Before an approval referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article is issued, the ministry competent for foreign affairs shall request an opinion of the Ministry and the Security Intelligence Agency in cases stipulated in subordinate legislation.
- (5) By way of derogation from paragraph 2 of this Article, visas may be issued at a border crossing in accordance with Article 26 of this Act.

Submitting visa applications

Article 17

- (1) Visa applications shall be submitted on the prescribed form at most 3 months before commencement of the intended journey.
- (2) An alien who is entered in the travel document of an alien submitting a visa application shall submit a visa application on a separate form referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.
- (3) Documents concerning the purpose and conditions of transit or stay in the Republic of Croatia shall be enclosed to the visa application.
- (4) An alien arriving for a private or business visit to a natural or legal person in the Republic of Croatia may be asked to enclose a guarantee letter and/or other proof that the natural or legal person shall bear the costs of his stay in the Republic of Croatia, including the costs of accommodation and maintenance, and the costs of his return.
- (5) Launching of the procedure for the collection of costs referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article is within the competence of the Ministry.
- (6) The form referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the documents referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article and the guarantee letter and other proof referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall be stipulated in subordinate legislation governing the visa issuing procedure.

Article 18

(1) Visas shall be entered in the travel document in the form of a sticker.

(2) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, if required on humanitarian grounds or national interests of the Republic of Croatia, and if the travel document is not recognised as valid for crossing the state border and affixing a visa, the visa may be entered on the form for affixing a visa.

(3) The form referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be issued by the diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia or by the police station competent for controlling the crossing of the state border.

Travel medical insurance

Article 19

(1) Aliens submitting an application for the issuing of a short-term visa for one or two entries shall prove that they are in possession of adequate and valid travel medical insurance to cover any expenses which might arise in connection with repatriation for medical reasons, urgent medical attention and/or emergency hospital treatment or death, during their stay in the territory of the Republic of Croatia.

(2) Aliens submitting an application for the issuing of a short-term visa for multiple entries shall prove that they are in possession of adequate and valid travel medical insurance covering the period of their first intended visit, and sign the statement concerning the obligation to be in possession of travel medical insurance for subsequent stays.

(3) By way of derogation from paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, the following persons shall not be obligated to enclose proof of travel medical insurance:

1. holders of diplomatic passports,
2. seafarers and other professional groups, who are already covered by travel medical insurance as a result of their professional activities.

Croatian Visa Information System

Article 20

(1) Visa applications and data collected from an alien and natural or legal person referred to in Article 17, paragraph 4 of this Act shall be entered and processed in the Croatian Visa Information System (hereinafter: Croatian VIS), in conformity with subordinate legislation governing the Croatian VIS and the legislation governing the protection of personal data.

(2) Data on issued, extended, refused, annulled and revoked visas shall be entered in the Croatian VIS in conformity with subordinate legislation governing the Croatian VIS.

Collecting biometric data

Article 21

(1) At the time of submission of the first short-term visa application, the alien shall be required to appear in person at the diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia, so that the following biometric identifiers of the alien might be collected:

- photograph, scanned or taken at the time of application in line with subordinate legislation governing the visa issuing procedure, and
- his 10 fingerprints taken flat and collected digitally, in conformity with subordinate legislation governing the Croatian VIS.

(2) Biometric identifiers referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be entered in the Croatian VIS.

(3) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, the following applicants shall be exempt from the requirement to give fingerprints:

1. children under the age of 12;
2. persons for whom fingerprinting is physically impossible. If the fingerprinting of fewer than 10 fingers is possible, the maximum number of fingerprints shall be taken. If the impossibility of fingerprinting is temporary, the alien shall be required to give the fingerprints at the submission of the following application;
3. heads of state and members of a national government with accompanying spouses, and the members of their official delegation when they are invited by the Government of the Republic of Croatia or by international organisations for an official purpose.
4. rulers and other high-ranking members of the royal family if the Government of the Republic of Croatia or an international organisation invited them for an official visit.

Criteria for admitting visa applications

Article 22

(1) A visa application shall be admitted if:

1. it was not submitted more than three months before the intended trip,
2. it was submitted on the form referred to in Article 17 of this Act,
3. it includes a travel document in line with Article 24, paragraph 1 of this Act,
4. it includes a photograph,
5. biometric identifiers were collected,
6. the administrative fee prescribed was paid.

(2) In the case referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, all documents enclosed shall be returned to the alien, biometric identifiers shall be destroyed and the amount of administrative fees paid refunded.

(3) By way of derogation from paragraph 2 of this Article, an application shall be admitted on humanitarian grounds or national interests of the Republic of Croatia.

Deadline for deciding on visa applications

Article 23

- (1) Visa applications shall be decided on within 15 days of the date of the lodging of an application.
- (2) The period referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be extended up to a maximum of 30 or 60 days, if there are justified reasons to do so.

Travel documents

Article 24

- (1) Visas are affixed into a travel document which meets the following criteria:
1. must be valid for at least three months after the intended date of departure from the Republic of Croatia or, in the case of multiple visits, after the last intended date of departure from the Republic of Croatia,
 2. must include at least two empty pages,
 3. must be issued in the preceding 10 years.
- (2) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, in justified matters requiring urgency, a visa may be affixed in a travel document the period of validity of which is shorter.

Issuing visas at a border crossing

Article 25

- (1) Short-term visas may be issued at a border crossing point:
1. for stay of up to 15 days,
 2. for the purpose of transit,
 3. to a seafarer for the purpose of transit.

Article 26

- (1) Visas may be issued at a border crossing point, provided that the alien satisfies the following conditions:
1. holds a valid travel document or another document authorising the crossing of the state border,
 2. justifies the purpose and has sufficient resources to maintain himself during his stay in the Republic of Croatia and for returning to the country from which he came or for travelling to a third country,
 3. his return to the country of origin or temporary residence or transit is regarded as safe,
 4. he was not issued the prohibition of entry and stay and is not covered by international measures for restricted entry which are binding on the Republic of Croatia,

5. does not pose a threat to public policy, national security or public health of the Republic of Croatia.

Article 27

(1) The visa referred to in Article 26 of this Act may be issued only if an alien is not in the position to submit an application for the issuing of a visa in a diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia and if he enclosed, where necessary, documents proving unforeseen and unpostponeable reasons for entry in the Republic of Croatia.

Article 28

(1) Short-term visas for the purpose of transit at a border crossing point shall be issued to a seafarer if:

1. holds the seafarer's travel document or other documents recognised as seafarer's identification document under international treaties,
2. meets the conditions referred to in Articles 26 and 27 of this Act and crosses the state border in order to embark on, re-embark on or disembark from a ship on which he works, will work or on which he worked as a seafarer.

Article 29

(1) The issuing of a visa at a border crossing point shall be refused if the criteria referred to in Articles 26 and 27 of this Act are not met or if there are grounds stipulated in Article 31, paragraph 1 of this Act.

(2) The decision refusing a visa shall be submitted to an alien on the prescribed form.

(3) An alien is entitled to file an appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article through the competent diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia. An appeal is decided on by the Appeals Commission with the ministry competent for foreign affairs.

Extending a visa

Article 30

(1) Visas may not be extended.

(2) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, the period of validity and/or the duration of stay of an issued visa:

1. shall be extended for force majeure or humanitarian grounds,
2. may be extended for serious personal reasons.

(3) An application for extending a visa and/or the duration of stay approved further to an issued visa shall be submitted to a police administration or police station before the expiration of the period of validity of the visa and/or stay approved further to the issued visa, on which application the Ministry shall decide within seven days.

(4) Until the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article is made, an alien may stay in the territory of the Republic of Croatia.

Refusing a visa

Article 31

(1) Visas shall be refused:

1. if the alien:
 - presents a travel document which is false, counterfeit or belonging to another person;
 - does not provide justification for the purpose and conditions of the intended stay;
 - does not have sufficient means of subsistence, both for the duration of the intended stay and for the return to his country of origin or stay, or for the transit to a third country into which he is certain to be admitted, or is not in a position to acquire such means lawfully;
 - has already stayed for three months during the current six-month period in the territory of the Republic of Croatia on the basis of an issued visa;
 - was issued the prohibition of entry and stay or is covered by international measures for restricted entry which are binding on the Republic of Croatia;
 - poses a threat to public policy, national security or public health of the Republic of Croatia;
 - does not provide proof of holding adequate and valid travel medical insurance, where applicable;

or

2. if there are reasonable doubts as to the authenticity of the supporting documents or the veracity of their contents, the reliability of the statements made by the alien or his intention to leave the territory of the Republic of Croatia before the expiry of the visa applied for.

(2) The decision refusing a visa and the grounds on which it is based shall be submitted to the alien on the prescribed form.

(3) An alien is entitled to file an appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article through the competent diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia. An appeal is decided on by the Appeals Commission with the ministry competent for foreign affairs.

(4) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, a visa may be issued if required on humanitarian grounds or national interests or international obligations of the Republic of Croatia.

Filling out the visa sticker

Article 32

- (1) All entries on the visa sticker shall be printed, and no manual changes shall be made to a printed visa sticker.
- (2) Visa stickers may be filled in manually only in case of technical difficulties in view of force majeure. No changes shall be made to a manually filled in visa sticker.

Annulment and revocation of a visa

Article 33

- (1) A visa shall be annulled where it becomes evident that the conditions for issuing it were not met at the time when it was issued or if there are serious grounds for believing that the visa was fraudulently obtained.
- (2) A visa shall be revoked where it becomes evident that the conditions for issuing it are no longer met.
- (3) A visa may be annulled or revoked by a diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia, or by a police administration or police station.
- (4) The decision annulling or revoking a visa and the grounds on which it is based shall be submitted to an alien on the prescribed form.
- (5) An alien is entitled to file an appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article through the competent diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia.
- (6) An appeal is decided on by the Appeals Commission with the ministry competent for foreign affairs.
- (7) An appeal shall not postpone enforcement of the decision referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article.
- (8) A visa may also be revoked at the request of an alien to whom it was issued, in which case an appeal is not permissible.

IV ENTRY AND DEPARTURE OF ALIENS

Article 34

- (1) An alien is considered to have entered the Republic of Croatia when he passes the point where border controls are carried out at the border crossing point, and in other cases when he crosses the border line.

(2) An alien who is registered in the travel document of another person may enter and leave the Republic of Croatia only if accompanied by the person in whose travel document he is registered.

Article 35

(1) An alien shall be subject to border control at the time of entry into and departure from the Republic of Croatia.

(2) Border controls referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article are carried out in accordance with legislation which regulates surveillance of the state border, and includes the establishing of reasons referred to in Article 36 of this Act.

Approval of an alien's entry into the Republic of Croatia.

Article 36

(1) An alien may be granted entry to the Republic of Croatia if:

1. he holds a valid travel document or other document used for crossing the state border,
2. he holds a valid visa or valid approval of stay, where necessary,
3. he justifies the purpose and conditions for entry and stay and has sufficient resources to maintain himself during his stay in the Republic of Croatia and for returning to the country from which he came or for travelling to a third country,
4. he was not issued the prohibition of entry and stay and is not covered by international measures for restricted entry which are binding on the Republic of Croatia,
5. he is not considered to be a threat to public policy, national security or public health.

(2) An alien who does not meet the criteria referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be granted entry to the Republic of Croatia at a specific border crossing if required on serious humanitarian grounds, national interests or international obligations of the Republic of Croatia.

Article 37

(1) The Government of the Republic of Croatia may lay down that nationals of certain states may enter and leave the Republic of Croatia with a valid personal identity card or other document proving their identity and nationality, provided that they meet the conditions referred to in Article 36, paragraph 1, items 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this Act.

(2) The Government of the Republic of Croatia may lay down that under certain conditions nationals of certain states may enter and leave the Republic of Croatia if they hold a valid travel document which includes a valid stay permit or a valid type C visa issued by a signatory of the Schengen Implementation Agreement, provided that they meet the conditions referred to in Article 36, paragraph 1, items 1, 3, 4 and 5 of this Act.

Refusing an alien's entry into the Republic of Croatia.

Article 38

(1) The police station competent for controlling the crossing of the state border shall issue a decision refusing an alien's entry.

(2) An appeal may be filed against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article through the competent diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia, which is decided by the Commission. The appeal does not postpone enforcement.

Illegal entry of an alien into the Republic of Croatia.

Article 39

(1) An alien shall be deemed to have entered the Republic of Croatia illegally if:

1. he crosses the state border outside the place or time designated for crossing the state border,
2. he avoids border control,
3. he enters the Republic of Croatia during the prohibition of entry and stay in the Republic of Croatia,
4. he enters before the expiration of the time period referred to in Article 46, paragraph 4 of this Act,
5. he enters on the basis of another person's or forged travel document or other document necessary for crossing the state border.

Departure of aliens from the Republic of Croatia

Article 40

(1) Aliens are free to leave the Republic of Croatia.

(2) An alien shall be prohibited from leaving the Republic of Croatia if:

1. at the time of leaving the Republic of Croatia, he uses another person's or forged travel document or other document used to cross the state border, or
2. there is a justifiable reason to believe that he intends to avoid prosecution for a criminal offence or prosecution for a misdemeanour, detention, arrest, bringing in or enforcement of the sentence of imprisonment.

Carriers' obligations

Article 41

- (1) A carrier may take an alien to the border crossing point or to the Republic of Croatia if the alien holds a valid travel document or another document intended for crossing the state border, a valid visa, if he requires one, or stay permit.
- (2) The carrier who transports an alien contrary to paragraph 1 of this Article shall take him from the border crossing point or from the Republic of Croatia without any delay and, if that is not possible, the carrier shall bear the cost of some other way of transport or, if such other type of transport is not readily available, assume the costs incurred during the stay and return of the alien.
- (3) The provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article also relate to carriers who transported an alien in transit:
1. if the carrier who should have taken him to the country of destination refused to do so, or
 2. if he is prohibited to enter the country of destination.
- (4) The provisions of this Article also refer to the commander of a sports and leisure vessel.

Obligations of the organisers of tourist or business trips

Article 42

If the alien stays in the Republic of Croatia illegally and does not have means to fund his own return, the costs of the return of the alien shall be borne by the organiser of tourist or business trips to the Republic of Croatia who organised the trip of the alien if it is established that the illegal stay of the alien is a consequence of an omission by the organiser.

Prohibition to assist an alien

Article 43

- (1) It is prohibited to assist an alien in illegal crossing of the state border, in transit across the state territory if the alien entered the Republic of Croatia illegally, and in his illegal stay.

(2) Temporary stay for the purpose of work referred to in paragraph 1 item 5 of this Article shall be granted as a stay and work permit.

(3) Temporary stay for the purpose of work of a posted worker shall be granted to a third-country national if he meets the criteria referred to in Article 54 and Article 86, paragraph 1 of this Act.

(4) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, an alien may be granted temporary stay for other purposes, at most up to six months in the course of one year.

(5) The national of an EEA Member State who owns real property in the Republic of Croatia may be granted temporary stay for other purposes in the duration of up to one year.

(6) Temporary stay may be granted as autonomous stay in the duration of up to one year in accordance with Article 60 of this Act.

Submitting an application for temporary stay

Article 48

(1) Temporary stay applications shall be submitted to the diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia.

(2) Temporary stay applications for aliens who do not require a visa for entry into the Republic of Croatia may be submitted to the police administration or police station based on the place of the intended stay of the alien, the registered office (seat) of the employer or the place of work of the alien.

(3) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, an alien who needs a visa for entry in the Republic of Croatia, and who is to study at a university as a full-time student at undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate level, and an alien referred to in Article 76, paragraph 1, items 12, 13, 14 and 15 of this Act and members of his immediate family may submit an application for the approval of temporary stay at a police administration or police station.

(4) An alien referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article who submits a temporary stay application before the expiration of short-term stay may remain in the Republic of Croatia until the decision concerning his application becomes enforceable.

Article 49

(1) An application for approving temporary stay shall be submitted by the alien, and an application for the issuing of a stay and work permit may be submitted by the employer.

Deciding on the temporary stay application

Article 50

(1) The police administration or police station based on the place of temporary residence or intended stay of an alien decides on the temporary stay application.

(2) An appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be filed, where the Commission shall decide about the appeal.

(3) An appeal is not permissible against a decision refusing the issuing of a stay and work permit if the annual quota is full or if the annual quota for extension, new employment or seasonal employment was not set, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

Regulating the temporary stay of children born in the Republic of Croatia

Article 51

(1) The parent or guardian of a child born in the territory of the Republic of Croatia shall submit a temporary stay application for the child before the child turns three months of age.

(2) Temporary stay referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be granted for the time period granted for temporary stay to one of the parents or the guardian of the child, that is, up to one year if one of the parents or the guardian is an alien on permanent stay.

Term of validity of temporary stay

Article 52

- (1) The temporary stay permit shall be issued for the term of validity of up to one year.
- (2) The term of validity of the travel document shall be at least 3 months longer than the time period for which the temporary stay permit is issued.
- (3) A decision approving temporary stay shall be issued to an alien who does not hold a valid foreign travel document, and the temporary stay application was submitted in the Republic of Croatia.
- (4) An alien referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall enclose the foreign travel document to the application for extending his temporary stay.

Extending temporary stay

Article 53

- (1) Applications for the extension of temporary stay shall be submitted at the latest 30 days before the expiration of the term of validity of the valid temporary stay permit, at the police administration or police station based on the place of temporary residence or the registered office (seat) of the employer or the place of work of the alien.
- (2) An alien who submitted an application for the extension of temporary stay before the expiration of the valid temporary stay may remain in the Republic of Croatia until the decision on his application becomes enforceable.

Deciding on the temporary stay application

Article 54

- (1) Temporary stay of an alien shall be granted if:
 1. he proves the purpose of temporary stay,
 2. he holds a valid travel document;
 3. he has funds to support himself,
 4. he holds health insurance,
 5. he is not prohibited entry and stay in the Republic of Croatia,

1. a Croatian national,
2. an alien having approved permanent stay,
3. an alien having approved temporary stay,
4. an alien granted protection under the Asylum Act.

(2) By way of derogation from paragraph 1, item 3 of this Article, a member of the immediate family of an alien staying in the Republic of Croatia based on a valid stay and work permit approved for a year in accordance with the annual quota for the employment of aliens may be granted temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification only if the alien with whom family reunification is sought had temporary stay in the Republic of Croatia granted for at least 2 years.

(3) Temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification shall not be granted to the family member of an alien to whom a stay and work permit for the purpose of seasonal work was issued.

Family members

Article 56

(1) Members of the immediate family within the meaning of this Act are the following:

1. spouse,
2. common law partners,
3. the underage children of married couples and common law partners, their underage adopted children, and the underage children of each of them, who have not formed families of their own,
4. parents or adoptive parents of underage children.

(2) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, some other relatives may also be regarded as a member of the immediate family of a Croatian national, an alien granted temporary or permanent stay and an alien holding asylee status, provided that there are special personal or serious humanitarian grounds for family reunification in the Republic of Croatia.

(3) In the case of a polygamous marriage, family reunification in the territory of the Republic of Croatia shall be granted to only one spouse.

(4) Family reunification shall not be granted if the spouse or common law partner is married or in a durable relationship with another person.

(5) Common law marriage within the meaning of this Act means the union of life of an unmarried woman and an unmarried man at least three years in duration or shorter if a child was born into such union.

Marriage of convenience

Article 57

(1) Temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification shall not be granted if the marriage is a marriage of convenience.

(2) Marriage of convenience within the meaning of this Act means any marriage concluded with a view to circumventing the requirements necessary for the entry and stay of aliens.

(3) Circumstances which may indicate that the marriage is a marriage of convenience are as follows:

1. the spouses do not maintain their marital union,
2. the spouses do not perform their marital obligations,
3. the spouses have never met before the conclusion of marriage,
4. the spouses fail to provide consistent personal data,
5. the spouses do not speak a language that they both understand,
6. material assets were exchanged for the conclusion of marriage, unless the assets represent dowry, and the spouses come from countries where the presentation of dowry is a custom,
7. there is proof of previous marriages of convenience on the part of any of the spouses either in the Republic of Croatia or abroad.

(4) The provisions of this Article shall apply accordingly to common law marriages and in the procedure of approving permanent stay.

Regulating temporary stay for the family member of a person enjoying protection under the Asylum Act

Article 58

(1) A member of the immediate family of a person who was granted protection under the Asylum Act shall not be obligated to meet the criteria referred to in Article 54, paragraph 1, items 3 and 4 of this Act for the approval of temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification.

Term of validity of temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification

Article 59

(1) A temporary stay permit for the purpose of family reunification shall be issued for a period of up to one year or until the expiration of the validity period of the temporary stay permit of the alien with whom family reunification is sought.

(2) An alien who had an uninterrupted temporary stay permit for the purpose of family reunification in the duration of at least 2 years may be granted temporary stay for the same purpose with the term of validity of up to 2 years or until the expiration of the validity of the temporary stay permit of the alien with whom family reunification is sought.

Autonomous stay

Article 60

(1) The spouse or common law partner and child who came of age may be granted autonomous stay, provided that they meet the criteria referred to in Article 54, paragraph 1, items 2 through 6 of this Act and that they have approved temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification in the uninterrupted duration of 4 years.

(2) Exceptionally, aliens referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be granted autonomous stay if they meet the criteria referred to in Article 54, paragraph 1, items 2 through 6 of this Act and if they have approved temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification in the uninterrupted duration of 3 years, in the case where the person through whom they were granted temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification died.

Rights of aliens on temporary stay further to family reunification and on autonomous stay

Article 61

(1) An alien granted temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification and an alien referred to in Article 60 of this Act shall exercise their right to education, professional development, work and self-employment in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Temporary stay for the purpose of secondary education

Article 62

(1) Temporary stay for the purpose of secondary education shall be granted to an alien who along with the criteria referred to in Article 54 of this Act also meets the following conditions:

1. he is not over 18 years of age if he is enrolling in the last year of education,
2. he is enrolled in a secondary school,
3. he participates in a recognised pupil exchange programme approved by the ministry competent for education and science, and
4. he encloses the consent of his parent or legal guardian for his planned stay for the purpose of secondary education in the Republic of Croatia,
5. he encloses proof that the organisation carrying out the pupil exchange programme is to be responsible for him during his stay in the Republic of Croatia, especially in terms of funds for support, learning, health care and costs of his return, and

6. that the family with whom he is staying meets the criteria stipulated in special regulations and that the family was selected in accordance with the pupil exchange programme.

(2) The temporary stay permit for the purpose of secondary education shall be issued for the term of validity of up to one year.

Temporary stay for the purpose of studies

Article 63

(1) Temporary stay for the purpose of studies shall be granted to an alien meeting the conditions referred to in Article 54 of this Act, and:

1. studying at a higher education institution in the Republic of Croatia,
2. has arrived as part of a student exchange programme or youth mobility, or
3. is to undergo practice through an authorised organisation or based on international or interuniversity agreements.

(2) The temporary stay permit for the purpose of studies shall be issued for the term of validity of up to one year, that is, by the end of the academic year.

(3) Performance of professional practice by an alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be considered work within the meaning of the provisions of this Act.

Temporary stay for the purpose of scientific research

Article 64

(1) Temporary stay for the purpose of scientific research shall be granted to an alien who concluded a hosting contract and who meets the criteria referred to in Article 54 of this Act, other than proof of medical insurance.

(2) The temporary stay permit for the purpose of scientific research shall be issued for the term of validity of up to one year.

(3) An alien who concluded a hosting agreement to work in an EEA Member State and who was granted stay in the state concerned pursuant to such agreement may stay in the Republic of Croatia up to 90 days in order to carry out research if he has funds to support himself and if he does not pose a threat to public policy, national security and public health.

Temporary stay under humanitarian grounds

Article 65

(1) Temporary stay under humanitarian grounds shall be granted to an alien in the following cases:

1. if as a victim of trafficking (hereinafter: the victim), he agreed to participate in an assistance and protection programme,
2. if he is a minor who was abandoned or who is a victim of organised crime or who remained without parental protection, guardianship or escort for some other reasons,
3. an alien who had the status of refugee for at least 10 years before the date of submission of the application or who is included in a reconstruction, return or housing care programme for refugees from the Republic of Croatia, as evident from the certificate of the competent state body for refugees,
4. an alien cooperates with the competent bodies and his participation is indispensable in the criminal procedure being conducted against the employer who employed him illegally,
5. serious justified humanitarian grounds.

(2) An alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be required to meet the criteria referred to in Article 54, paragraph 1, items 3 and 4 of this Act.

(3) Before issuing the temporary stay permit referred to in paragraph 1, item 5 of this Article, the police administration or the police station shall request an approval of the Ministry.

Victim of human trafficking

Article 66

(1) The identification of the victim shall be made by the Ministry in cooperation with civil society organisations and, in the event of a victim who is under age, the Ministry shall cooperate with the ministry competent for social welfare.

(2) The Operative Team of the National Committee for the Suppression of Trafficking in Persons (hereinafter referred to as: the Operative Team) shall notify the Ministry of the agreement of the victim to participate in an assistance and protection programme.

(3) The assistance and protection programme shall include health and psychosocial protection, safe accommodation, translation and interpretation services, legal assistance and a safe return to the country of origin.

(4) The person shall lose the right to assistance and protection if he based his testimony on false facts, if the circumstances under which he acquired the right to assistance and protection terminated or if he acts contrary to the rules laid down in the assistance and protection programme. The Operative Team shall notify the Ministry of the termination of the right to assistance and protection.

Article 67

(1) An alien identified as a victim shall be entitled to decide whether to participate in an assistance and protection programme within a term of 60 days.

(2) The guardian of a minor identified as a victim shall be entitled, subject to the approval of the social welfare centre, to decide whether to participate in the assistance and protection programme within a term of 90 days, bearing in mind the best interests of the minor and taking into account the opinion of the minor.

(3) The deadline referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article need not be complied with if it is established that the alien identified as a victim is not a victim or if he actively, voluntarily and on his own personal initiative renewed his contacts with the perpetrators of the criminal offences or if required by reasons of protecting public policy and national security.

Article 68

(1) A victim granted temporary stay shall be entitled to safe accommodation, health protection, financial assistance, education and work.

(2) Safe accommodation means a place where the victim is protected against the influence of the person suspected of having committed the criminal offence.

(3) The amount of financial assistance shall be set by the body competent for social welfare.

(4) A victim who is employed or has financial means or whose living costs are ensured in some other way shall not be entitled to financial assistance.

(5) Special care shall be taken of pregnant women and people with disability as particularly vulnerable groups of victims.

(6) An alien granted temporary stay under humanitarian grounds in accordance with Article 65, paragraph 1, item 4 of this Act shall exercise his rights referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Article 69

(1) All bodies involved in the assistance and protection programme of a victim who is a minor shall bear in mind the best interests of the minor.

(2) If the victim is a minor referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Ministry shall take the necessary measures to determine his identity, nationality and to locate other members of his family.

(3) The body competent for social welfare shall appoint a guardian for the victim who is a minor.

Article 70

(1) The safe return of an alien who has the victim status shall be conducted by the Ministry taking into account his rights, safety and dignity. If possible, the return should be voluntary.

(2) Minors who are the victims of trafficking shall not be returned to any state if, after an evaluation of the risks and safety, there are indications that the return would not be in the best interests of the minor.

Article 71

(1) Temporary stay under humanitarian grounds shall terminate if:

1. the victim lost the victim status,
2. it is established that the victim is abusing his position,
3. required by reasons of protecting public policy, national security and public health.

(2) When deciding on the termination of temporary stay of a victim who is a minor, the competent body for social welfare shall be requested to issue its opinion.

(3) Temporary stay under humanitarian grounds referred to in Article 65, paragraph 1, items 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this Act shall terminate if the purpose because of which temporary stay was granted to an alien terminates or if required by reasons of protecting public policy, national security and public health.

(4) An appeal may be filed against the decision of the police administration or police station referred to in paragraphs 1 and 3 of this Article, where the Commission shall decide about the appeal.

Termination of temporary stay

Article 72

(1) Short-term stay of an alien shall terminate:

1. when the circumstances for the approval of temporary stay cease to exist,
2. if he is prohibited entry and stay,
3. if within 30 days after the approval of temporary stay he fails to register his temporary residence with the police administration or police station,
4. if he moved out of the Republic of Croatia or stays abroad without interruptions for a period over 30 days,

5. if he stays in the Republic of Croatia contrary to the purpose of the temporary stay permit.

(2) The decision referred to in paragraph 1, items 2 and 3 of this Article may be adopted without a preliminary interview with the alien if he was notified in advance of the procedure for termination of his temporary stay.

(3) The police administration or police station shall not adopt a decision on the termination of temporary stay if the prohibition of entry and stay referred to in paragraph 1, item 2 of this Article was issued in a decision on expulsion.

(4) An appeal may be filed against the decision of the police administration or police station referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, where the Commission shall decide about the appeal.

(5) By way of derogation from paragraph 1, item 4 of this Article, the temporary stay of any alien who stays out of the Republic of Croatia for a period of up to 90 days for justified reasons shall not terminate if he notifies the relevant police administration or police station thereof, at the latest 10 days of the day of return to the Republic of Croatia.

Work of aliens in the Republic of Croatia

Article 73

(1) An alien may work in the Republic of Croatia further to an issued stay and work permit or a work registration certificate, unless provided otherwise in this Act.

(2) The stay and work permit may be issued based on the annual quota and outside the annual quota.

(3) Without a stay and work permit or a work registration certificate, aliens who have the following may work in the Republic of Croatia:

1. permanent stay,

2. asylum, subsidiary or temporary protection,

3. temporary stay for the purpose of family reunification with a Croatian national, an alien on permanent stay, an asylee and an alien who was granted subsidiary or temporary protection,

4. temporary stay under humanitarian grounds,

5. autonomous stay,

6. the status of a full-time pupil or student where they perform their work through authorised agents, without contracting employment,

7. temporary stay for the purpose of scientific research referred to in Article 64 of this Act.

(4) Within the meaning of this Act, the performance of preliminary actions for the establishment and registration of a company or trade is not regarded as work.

(5) An alien may work in the Republic of Croatia only on such jobs for which he was issued a stay and work permit or a work registration certificate, that is, only with the employer with whom he contracted employment.

(6) An employer may assign an alien only to such jobs for which he was issued a stay and work permit or a work registration certificate.

(7) An employer may not employ an alien staying in the Republic of Croatia illegally or use his work.

(8) Before the commencement of work, an employer must ask the alien to provide for review a valid stay and work permit, work registration certificate or stay permit referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, a copy of which the employer must keep throughout the term of employment.

(9) If an alien presented an invalid permit referred to in paragraph 8 of this Article, the employer shall not be regarded responsible for the employment of the alien staying in the Republic of Croatia illegally unless the employer knew that the document presented as stay and work permit was forged.

(10) An employer employing an alien referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall notify the competent police administration or police station thereof within 8 days of the establishment of employment or commencement of work by the alien.

(11) The provisions of this Article relating to employers shall apply accordingly to subcontractors.

Annual quota for the employment of aliens

Article 74

(1) The Government of the Republic of Croatia shall set the annual quota for the employment of aliens at the latest by 31 October of the current year for the following year, for the extension of work permits already issued and for new employment.

(2) The ministry responsible for employment shall draw up a proposal of the annual quota for the employment of aliens on the basis of an opinion of the Croatian Employment Service, the Croatian Chamber of Economy, the Croatian Chamber of Trades and Crafts and representatives of social partners.

(3) The annual quota for the employment of aliens shall be determined in accordance with the migration policy and the situation on the labour market.

(4) The annual quota for the employment of aliens shall set out the activities and occupations in which the employment is permitted, and the number of work permits for each of the activities and occupations.

(5) The annual quota for the employment of aliens may set out the quota for seasonal employment.

Stay and work permit further to the annual quota for employment of aliens

Article 75

(1) The stay and work permit further to the annual quota referred to in Article 74 of this Act shall be granted to an alien who meets the criteria referred to in Article 54 of this Act, and encloses the following:

1. an employment contract or a written certificate of the conclusion of an employment contract or other relevant contract,
2. proof of the academic qualifications acquired and the skills of the alien,
3. proof of the registration of a company, branch office, representative office, trade, association or institution in the Republic of Croatia.

15. aliens working pursuant to an international treaty, other than the treaty referred to in Article 79, paragraph 1, item 2 of this Act.

(2) Within the meaning of paragraph 1, item 3 of this Article, an alien holding key activities in a company, branch office or representative office of a foreign company shall be:

1. a person having a higher rank in a company, branch office or representative office, person managing business activities, person under the general supervision or management of the management board or shareholders or members of the company, and person carrying out identical activities, including:

- monitoring of work of the company's divisions or subdivisions;
- monitoring and supervision of the work of other employees, that is, carrying out of supervisory or managerial tasks,
- authorisation to employ and dismiss workers and to give recommendations related to employment, dismissal or other personnel-related tasks,

2. a person working in a company, branch office or representative office who possesses special professional knowledge and/or powers indispensable for providing services, using research equipment, applying technology or carrying out the business operations of a company, branch office or representative office.

Article 77

(1) The stay and work permit referred to in Article 76 of this Act shall be granted to an alien who meets the criteria referred to in Article 54 of this Act, and encloses the following:

1. an employment contract or a written certificate of the conclusion of an employment contract or other relevant contract,
2. proof of the academic qualifications acquired and the skills of the alien,
3. proof of the registration of a company, branch office, representative office, trade, association or institution in the Republic of Croatia,

4. an explanation why the employment of the alien is justified, including information on his professional knowledge, qualifications and working experience of the alien, and reasons why the position cannot be assigned to a Croatian national on the labour market.

(2) It is not necessary to enclose an explanation of the justifiability of employment of an alien to the application for the issuing of the stay and work permit referred to in Article 76, paragraph 1, items 2, 4, 5 and 6 of this Act.

Article 78

(1) A stay and work permit may be issued to an alien referred to in Article 76, paragraph 1, item 3 of this Act if he meets the criteria referred to in Article 77 of this Act, and provided that:

1. the value of share capital of the company, that is, assets of the general partnership or public trading company exceeds the amount of HRK 100,000.00,

2. at least 3 Croatian nationals are employed in the company, the branch office or representative office of a foreign company on jobs other than the procurator, member of the management board or supervisory board, and

3. and his gross salary is at least in the amount of an average gross salary paid in the Republic of Croatia in the previous year.

(2) If there are several aliens referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article performing key activities for the same employer, the stay and work permit may be issued provided that:

1. for each alien employed, there are at least five Croatian nationals employed on jobs other than procurator, member of the management board or member of the supervisory board,

2. the value of share capital of the company, that is, assets of the general partnership or public trading company exceeds the amount of HRK 100,000.00,

3. his gross salary is at least in the amount of an average gross salary paid in the Republic of Croatia in the previous year.

2. aliens participating in fairs and exhibitions where their employers are exhibitors.

Article 84

(1) Aliens referred to in Article 82 of this Act who will work for less than 90 days and aliens referred to in Article 83 of this Act, or legal and natural persons who will be using their services shall obtain, before the commencement of work, a work registration certificate from the police administration or police station based on the location of the performance of activities.

(2) Based on the work registration certificate issued, an alien may work for the same employer or service recipient throughout the territory of the Republic of Croatia.

(3) An alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be required to obtain a stay and work permit.

Article 85

(1) A legal or natural person using the services of an alien referred to in Articles 82 and 83 of this Act must be in the possession of a contract or other relevant certificate signed with the alien or the external employer who is sending the alien to work in the Republic of Croatia.

(2) The police administration or police station shall submit the work registration certificate to the alien, legal or natural person referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and the regional service or branch office of the Tax Administration, based on the registered office (seat) of the legal or natural person using the services of the alien or the place where the contracted work is to be performed.

(3) The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article and Article 84 of this Act shall not apply to aliens participating in sports events and competitions in the Republic of Croatia as the representatives of foreign teams, clubs or national teams.

Posted workers

Article 86

(1) A posted worker is a worker employed by a foreign employer referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, provided that the foreign employer, in the framework of temporary or occasional transnational provision of services, for a limited time period:

1. posts him to the Republic of Croatia for its account and under its guidance, based on a contract concluded between the foreign employer assigning him to such work and the service user doing business in the Republic of Croatia, provided that there is an employment relationship between the foreign employer and the worker during the period of posting or

2. posts him to the Republic of Croatia to an establishment or to a company owned by the same group to which the foreign employer belongs, provided there is an employment relationship between the foreign employer and the worker during the period of posting or

3. posts him as a temporary employment agency to a user established or doing business in the Republic of Croatia, provided that there is an employment relationship between the temporary employment agency and the worker during the period of posting.

(2) A foreign employer is a natural or legal person established in another Member State of the EEA, which in the framework of transnational provision of services, assigns the worker for a limited period of time to work in the Republic of Croatia.

(3) The posted worker is a worker posted by a foreign employer to carry out his or her work for a limited period of time in the Republic of Croatia, which is not a state in which he or she usually works.

(4) The posted worker who is a third-country national legally employed by a foreign employer and posted in the Republic of Croatia for a period over 3 months shall regulate his temporary stay for the purpose of work of the posted worker in accordance with Article 47, paragraph 1, item 6 of this Act.

(5) The posted worker referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be guaranteed the following working conditions:

1. the prescribed maximum duration of working hours and the minimum duration of rest,
2. the minimum duration of paid annual leave
3. the minimum salary, including increased salaries for overtime,
4. health and safety at work,
5. protective measures for work of pregnant women, women who have recently given birth or are breastfeeding and minors,
6. prohibition of discrimination.

(6) The working conditions referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article shall be guaranteed at the level of the rights laid down by legal regulations of the Republic of Croatia, that is, collective agreements which have been declared universally applicable to all employers and workers in a specific area, branch or activity, under a special regulation.

(7) The working conditions referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6 of this Article shall also be guaranteed to posted workers assigned through temporary employment agencies.

(8) The working conditions referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6 of this Article shall also be guaranteed to posted workers who are not citizens of EEA Member States, provided that they are legally employed by a foreign employer.

(9) A foreign employer shall confirm in the posting declaration referred to in Article 89 of this Act with respect to a posted worker referred to in paragraph 8 of this Article that the posted worker is legally employed according to the regulations of a state in which the foreign employer is established.

(10) The working conditions referred to in paragraph 5, items 2 and 3 of this Article shall not apply to a qualified worker posted by a foreign employer to the Republic of Croatia for a period less than 8 days if the foreign employer performing the delivery is sending him to perform the initial assembly and/or the initial set-up essential for making the products delivered available and agreed as an essential component of a supply of goods contract.

(11) Paragraph 10 of this Article shall not apply to workers posted to the Republic of Croatia by a foreign employer to carry out work in civil engineering relating to construction, repairs, maintenance, adaptations or demolition of buildings, and especially excavations, earth works, actual construction works, assembly and disassembly of prefabricated elements, the positioning of installations, alterations, renovation, repairs, disassembly, demolition, regular maintenance, maintenance, painting and cleaning or improvements.

(12) If the guaranteed working conditions referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article are determined in the regulations of the Republic of Croatia in a more favourable manner than in the regulations of a state in which the employer is established and which apply to the working relationship, the most favourable right for the posted worker shall be applied.

13) The employer established in a state which is not an EEA Member State may not be placed in a position more favourable than the foreign employer established in an EEA Member State.

Referential period

Article 87

(1) The length of the period for which the posted worker referred to in Article 86 of this Act was posted in the Republic of Croatia shall be calculated based on the referential period of 1 year from the commencement of posting.

(2) For the purpose of calculating the duration of posting, all previous periods in which the same job was performed for the same foreign employer by any posted worker sent by the foreign employer shall be taken into account.

Judicial protection and administrative cooperation and informing

Article 88

(1) For the purpose of ensuring protection and enjoyment of the rights to guaranteed working conditions referred to in Article 86 of this Act, the posted worker may initiate a court procedure against a legal or natural person of the foreign employer or service recipient in the Republic of Croatia before the competent court in the Republic of Croatia, in accordance with the regulations of the Republic of Croatia.

(2) For the purpose of exercising the right to full information on the protection and scope of the rights stipulated in Article 86 of this Act and the required international cooperation, the ministry competent for labour shall ensure the required mutual administrative cooperation and assistance, so that the data on the working conditions would be available to all interested parties.

Posting declaration

Article 89

(1) The foreign employer referred to in Article 86 of this Act shall submit a posting declaration at the latest 7 days before the commencement of posting which must include the following:

1. the name and registered office, that is, the name and surname, address of the foreign employer and contact details, such as telephone and telefax numbers, and electronic mail address,

2. the name and surname of the posted worker and information on the state in which the worker habitually works,
3. commencement and the foreseen duration of posting,
4. the name and seat or the name and surname, address of the beneficiary, the place of providing services and a short description of the service,
5. information on the date of issuing, the term of validity, the number and the competent body that issued the valid stay and work permit of the posted worker referred to in Article 86, paragraph 4 of this Act (a third-country national) according to the regulations to the state in which the foreign employer is established.

(2) A foreign employer referred to in paragraph 86 of this Act shall report any change of data referred in paragraph 1 of this Article, during the posting period.

(3) The declaration referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be submitted in writing or electronically to the body designated in a special regulation as the competent body for coordination of the social security systems in the Republic of Croatia.

Termination of validity of the stay and work permit

Article 90

(1) The stay and work permit shall cease to be valid:

1. on fulfilment of the criteria referred to in Article 72, paragraph 1 of this Act,
2. on termination of the existence of conditions based on which it was issued,
3. if an alien performs jobs for which the stay and work permit was not issued,
4. if an alien works for an employer for whom the stay and work permit was not issued,
5. if an alien or his employer do not respect regulations on employment, health and pension insurance and other regulations in accordance with which the activity must be carried out.

(2) An appeal may be filed against the decision of the police administration or police station referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, where the Commission shall decide about the appeal.

(3) The police administration or police station shall not adopt a decision on the termination of the stay and work permit if the prohibition of entry and stay referred to in Article 72, paragraph 1, item 2 of this Act was issued in a decision on expulsion.

Article 91

(1) An alien whose employment contract or other relevant contract terminated through no fault of his own is entitled to stay in the Republic of Croatia until his stay and work permit expires.

(2) Where the employment contract or other relevant contract terminates and where other conditions based on which the stay and work permit was issued cease to exist, the employer and the alien shall notify the police administration or police station within 15 days of the occurrence of the circumstances concerned.

Permanent stay

Article 92

(1) Permanent stay may be granted if an alien had approved temporary stay for an uninterrupted period of five years before the submission of the application.

(2) It shall also be deemed that an alien had an uninterrupted stay in the Republic of Croatia if within a period of five years he was absent from the Republic of Croatia on multiple occasions up to 10 months in total, or up to six months in the case of a one-time absence.

(3) At the time of deciding about his permanent stay application, the alien must have approved temporary stay in the Republic of Croatia.

Article 93

(1) The time required for granting permanent stay referred to in Article 92, paragraph 1 of this Act, shall not include:

1. the period of stay further to a stay and work permit issued to seasonal workers, daily migrant workers and service providers on behalf of a foreign employer,
2. the time spent serving one's prison sentence.

(2) In the case of an alien granted temporary stay for the purpose of studying, the time required for the approval of permanent stay referred to in Article 92, paragraph 1 of this Act includes only half of the time spent further to the temporary stay permit for the purpose of studying.

Article 94

(1) By way of derogation from Article 92 of this Act, permanent stay may also be granted to:

1. an alien who by the date of submitting the application had at least three years of uninterrupted temporary stay, and at least 10 years of refugee status, as demonstrated by a certificate of the competent state body for refugees,
2. an alien who had residence in the Republic of Croatia on 8 October 1991, and who is a beneficiary of the programme of return, reconstruction or housing care, as demonstrated by a certificate of the competent state body for refugees, and for whom it was established that he returned with an intention of living in the Republic of Croatia permanently,
3. a child whose both parents at the moment of his birth had approved permanent stay or the child of a single parent granted permanent stay.

Article 95

- (1) An alien shall submit an application for the issuing of a permanent stay permit to the police administration or police station based on the place of his temporary residence.
- (2) The Ministry shall issue a decision concerning the approval of permanent stay.
- (3) An appeal is not permissible against a decision of the Ministry, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

Article 96

(1) Permanent stay shall be granted to any alien who, along with the conditions referred to in Article 92 of this Act:

1. has a valid foreign travel document,
2. has the means of supporting himself,
3. has health insurance,
4. knows the Croatian language and the Latin script, and the Croatian culture and social system,
5. does not pose a threat to public policy, national security or public health.

(2) Aliens referred to in Article 94, paragraph 1, items 1 and 2 of this Act shall not be obligated to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph 1, items 2, 3 and 4 of this Article.

Article 97

(1) The testing of the knowledge of the Croatian language and Latin script may be conducted by higher education institutions, secondary schools and institutions for adult education that organise Croatian language courses based on the permission of the ministry competent for education.

(2) Knowledge of the Croatian culture and social system of the Republic of Croatia shall be demonstrated by the alien by completing a questionnaire in the procedure of approving permanent stay.

(3) Testing of the knowledge of the Croatian language and Latin script and the Croatian culture and social system shall not be compulsory for the following:

1. preschoolers,
2. attendants or persons who finished primary, secondary or higher education in the Republic of Croatia,
3. persons over the age of 65 if they are not employed,

(4) An alien who proves that he knows the Croatian culture and social system of the Republic of Croatia by filling out the questionnaire referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall not have to sit for the exam from the Croatian language and Latin script.

(5) An alien who does not know the Croatian language and Latin script shall attend a Croatian language course in the duration of at least 150 teaching hours.

(6) The costs of the testing referred to in paragraph 1 and of the Croatian language course referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article shall be borne by the alien.

Rights of aliens on permanent stay

Article 98

(1) An alien on permanent stay is entitled to the following:

1. work and self-employment,
2. professional development,
3. education and student scholarships,
4. social welfare, rights arising from pension, health insurance and the right to child allowance,
5. tax benefits,
6. access to the market of goods and services,
7. the freedom of association and the freedom to connect and to be a member in organisations representing employees or employers or organisations whose members are engaged in special professions, including to remuneration provided by such organisations.

(2) An alien shall exercise the rights in accordance with the regulations governing the fields referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Termination of permanent stay

Article 99

(1) Permanent stay of an alien shall terminate:

1. if he is prohibited entry and stay in the Republic of Croatia,
2. if he moved out of the Republic of Croatia or stayed abroad without interruptions for a period over one year,
3. if established that an alien deliberately provided untrue information or deliberately concealed the aim and circumstances which were relevant for the approval of permanent stay,
4. if required by the reasons of protecting public policy, national security or public health,
5. at his own request.

(2) The decision on termination of permanent stay shall be adopted by the Ministry at a proposal of the police administration or police station.

(3) The decision on termination of permanent stay may be adopted without a prior interview of the alien.

(4) The Ministry shall not adopt a decision on the termination of permanent stay if the prohibition of entry and stay referred to in paragraph 1, item 1 of this Article was issued in a decision on expulsion.

(5) An appeal is not permissible against the decision on termination of permanent stay, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

VI MEASURES FOR LEAVING THE REPUBLIC OF CROATIA

Special protection

Article 100

(1) At the time of applying measures for leaving the Republic of Croatia, the best interest of minors and other vulnerable persons, family life and the health of the alien subject to measures shall be taken into account at the time of applying the measures for leaving the Republic of Croatia.

4. the alien extradited to the Republic of Croatia,

5. the alien who was brought to the premises of the court from a border crossing for the purpose of conducting a criminal or misdemeanour procedure, and who was not granted entry in the Republic of Croatia.

(4) An alien staying illegally shall leave the Republic of Croatia without any delay.

Expulsion

Article 102

(1) An alien may be expelled from the Republic of Croatia if he poses a threat to public policy, national security or public health.

(2) The following is regarded as a decision on expulsion:

- a decision of the court issuing the security or protective measure of expulsion of an alien from the country,
- a decision on expulsion adopted by the Ministry, police administration or police station.

Article 103

(1) The decision on expulsion stipulates the prohibition of entry and stay and the time period during which an alien is prohibited from entering and staying in the Republic of Croatia.

(2) The prohibition of entry and stay shall run from the day of:

1. the expiration of the deadline for leaving the Republic of Croatia,
2. the removal (forced return),
3. the expiration of the prohibition of entry and stay issued in a previous decision on expulsion.

(3) The prohibition of entry and stay issued in a court decision ordering the security measure of expulsion of an alien from the country runs in accordance with special legislation.

Protection against expulsion

Article 104

(1) At the time of issuing the decision on expulsion, along with the circumstances referred to in Article 100 of this Act, the length of stay, economic connections and the degree of social and cultural integration of the alien in the Republic of Croatia shall be taken into account, and also his ties to the country of origin.

(2) The decision on expulsion of an alien:

1. on permanent stay in the Republic of Croatia,
2. on temporary stay in the Republic of Croatia for an uninterrupted period of 10 years,
3. on temporary stay in the Republic of Croatia who is staying legally in the Republic of Croatia for 3 years and where the alien is married to a Croatian national or to an alien on approved permanent stay, may be issued only subject to the existence of one of the grounds referred to in Article 106 of this Act.

Decision on expulsion

Article 105

(1) Within the meaning of Article 102, paragraph 1 of this Act, the decision on expulsion may be issued in particular if:

1. the alien's stay is illegal,
2. the alien crossed or attempted to cross the state border illegally,
3. the alien provides assistance in illegal entries, transit or stay,
4. concludes a marriage of convenience,
5. the alien violated the regulations on the employment and work of aliens, public order and peace, weapons, abuse of narcotic drugs or taxes,

(2) The prohibition of entry and stay issued in a decision on expulsion may not be less than three months or more than 20 years.

(3) The prohibition of entry and stay issued in a decision on expulsion referred to in Article 105, paragraph 1, items 1 and 2 of this Act may not be longer than 5 years.

(4) An alien staying illegally and an alien on short-term stay who does not understand the Croatian language shall be provided with a translator in the proceedings in the language the alien understands. The decision on expulsion shall be translated at the request of the alien.

(5) Before a decision on expulsion is issued, an alien who was employed illegally shall be notified of the possibility of receiving compensation of salary, and of the corresponding contributions in accordance with special regulations, and of the possibility of filing an appeal or complaint against the employer.

(6) In the procedure of adopting a decision on expulsion, an alien staying illegally and an alien on short-term stay are entitled to free legal aid in accordance with the regulation on free legal aid.

Legal remedies against the decision on expulsion

Article 108

(1) An appeal against the decision of the Ministry referred to in Article 107 of this Act is not permissible, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

(2) An appeal against the decision of the police administration or police station referred to in paragraph 107 of this Act may be filed, where the Commission shall decide about the appeal.

(3) By way of derogation from paragraph 2 of this Article, an appeal may not be filed against the decision on expulsion of an alien staying illegally and an alien on short-term stay, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

Annulment of a decision on expulsion and shortening of the duration of prohibition

Article 109

(1) The body which adopted the decision on expulsion may shorten the prohibition of entry and stay or annul the decision on expulsion if the grounds referred to in Article 102, paragraph 1 of this Act terminated, under humanitarian grounds, or if it is in the interest of the Republic of Croatia.

(2) The application for shortening the prohibition of entry and stay and for annulling the decision on expulsion may be submitted on expiration of half of the time of the issued prohibition of entry and stay, and in any case on expiration of 3 years of the commencement of the prohibition of entry and stay.

(3) An alien who was expelled only under the grounds referred to in Article 105, paragraph 1, items 1 and 2 of this Act may submit the application referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article if the criteria stipulated in paragraph 1 of this Article are met.

(4) An appeal may be filed against the decision of the police administration or police station rejecting the request referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, where the Commission shall decide about the appeal.

(5) If the stay of an alien becomes legal, the decision on expulsion shall cease to be valid without the adoption of an administrative act.

Approval of the stay of an alien expelled from an EEA Member State

Article 110

(1) Where an alien was expelled from an EEA Member State, the competent body shall take into account the interests of such EEA Member State in the procedure of issuing a visa or approving stay in the Republic of Croatia.

Obligations of natural and legal persons

Article 111

(1) State bodies, legal and natural persons shall immediately notify the police administration or police station if they learn that an alien is staying or working in the Republic of Croatia illegally unless they have an obligation of keeping a secret in accordance with special legal provisions.

(2) The body that initiated a misdemeanour or criminal procedure against an alien for offences prosecuted in the line of duty shall immediately notify the police administration or police station about the initiation and outcome of the procedure.

(3) The state body which adopted the decision by which an alien is declared guilty for a criminal offence or misdemeanour prosecuted in the line of duty shall notify the competent police administration or police station immediately after adopting the decision.

(4) The penitentiary institution shall notify the competent police administration or police station at least 24 hours before releasing the alien.

Decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia

Article 112

(1) An alien staying illegally and an alien whose legal stay is to terminate pursuant to a decision of the state body shall be ordered to leave the Republic of Croatia in a decision.

(2) An alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not have to be ordered to leave the Republic of Croatia in a decision, provided that:

1. the alien committed a criminal offence or misdemeanour with the elements of violence,
2. the alien was issued an unconditional sentence of imprisonment,
3. the alien crossed or tried to cross the state border illegally,

(3) The decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall stipulate a term within which the alien must leave the Republic of Croatia, and also removal (forced return) if the alien does not leave the Republic of Croatia.

(4) At the time of setting the time period for leaving the Republic of Croatia, along with the circumstances referred to in Article 100 of this Act, personal circumstances, and the time period within which the alien can leave the Republic of Croatia, which may not exceed 90 days, shall be taken into account.

(5) The time limit for leaving the Republic of Croatia to an alien staying illegally and an alien on short-term stay, except in the case referred to in paragraph 2, item 3 of this Article may not be less than 7 days or longer than 30 days.

(6) The time limit for leaving the Republic of Croatia may be extended in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Article.

(7) The decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia may stipulate to an alien the obligations referred to in Article 136 of this Act, provided that:

1. his asylum application was refused under Article 58, paragraph 1, item 2 or Article 61, paragraph 1, items 4 and 7 of the Asylum Act,
2. he does not have financial resources or documents required for entry into another state, and the circumstances indicate that he will not obtain them,
3. he was expelled from the Republic of Croatia.

(8) An alien to whom the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article was issued shall leave the Republic of Croatia within the set time period.

(9) An alien to whom the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article was issued shall report to a police officer at the border crossing point at the time of leaving the Republic of Croatia.

Adopting the decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia

Article 113

(1) The decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia shall be adopted by the Ministry, the police administration or police station.

(2) An alien staying illegally and an alien on short-term stay who does not understand the Croatian language shall be provided with a translator in the proceedings in the language the alien understands. The decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia shall be translated at the request of the alien.

(3) In the procedure of adopting a decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia, the provisions of Article 107, paragraphs 5 and 6 of this Act shall apply accordingly.

Legal remedies against the decision on leaving

Article 114

(1) The decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia, which is issued along with a decision on expulsion of an alien or a decision of the Ministry, the police administration or police station terminating the legal stay of the alien, shall be regarded as a component part of the decision on expulsion or the decision terminating the legal stay of the alien.

(2) An appeal may not be filed against a decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia issued to an alien staying illegally or an alien on short-term stay, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

(3) Where the stay of an alien referred to in Article 112, paragraph 1 of this Act, who did not leave the Republic of Croatia, becomes legal, the decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia shall cease to be valid without the adoption of an administrative act.

Procedure for leaving the Republic of Croatia towards a third-country national having a stay permit in another EEA Member State

Article 115

(1) The police administration or police station shall issue a warning to a third-country national staying in the Republic of Croatia illegally, and holding a stay permit of another EEA Member State, stating that he is obligated to leave the Republic of Croatia without any delay and return to the EEA Member State in which he holds such stay permit.

(2) If an alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article fails to leave the Republic of Croatia, a decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia shall be adopted.

(3) With respect to an alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article who is subject to a decision on expulsion, the police administration or police station shall issue a decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia without the issuing of a warning referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Removal (forced return)

Article 116

(1) An alien shall be subject to removal (forced return):

1. if he failed to leave the Republic of Croatia within the deadline set in the decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia,

2. if the decision of the state body terminating the alien's legal stay becomes enforceable, and the decision on leaving the Republic of Croatia according to Article 112, paragraph 2 of this Act is not to be adopted.

(2) Police officers shall escort the alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article to the state border to leave the Republic of Croatia.

(3) An alien subject to removal (forced return) shall not hinder the removal (forced return) in any way.

(4) In the implementation of measures for removal (forced return), the Ministry, the police administration or the police station may co-operate with other state bodies, other states and international and non-governmental organisations.

Recognising a decision on expulsion of an EEA Member State

Article 117

(1) An alien against whom an EEA Member State issued a legally effective decision on expulsion shall be subject to removal (forced return):

1. if he was sentenced to imprisonment in the duration of at least one year, because of a criminal offence,

2. in view of a suspicion to have committed or intended to commit a serious criminal offence,

3. in view of violations of the regulations on the entry and stay of aliens.

(2) An EEA Member State in which the alien holds a stay permit and a state that adopted the decision on expulsion shall be notified of the intention of removal (forced return).

(3) If an EEA Member State annuls the stay permit referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the alien shall be subject to removal (forced return). If the stay permit is not annulled, the alien shall not have to be subject to removal (forced return).

(4) The state that adopted the decision on expulsion shall be notified of the removal (forced return).

(5) The provisions of this Article shall not apply to the nationals of an EEA Member State, members of their families and members of the families of Croatian nationals.

Prohibition of removal (forced return)

Article 118

(1) An alien shall not be subject to removal (forced return) to a state where his life or freedom would be jeopardised on account of his race, religion or nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion or where he might be exposed to torture or inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, or where he might be exposed to capital punishment, and to a state where he would be in danger of being subject to removal (forced return) to such a state.

(2) An alien who is under age shall not be subject to removal (forced return) if that would be contrary to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and the Convention on the Realisation of Children's Rights.

(3) An unaccompanied alien who is under age shall be subject to removal (forced return) to a state in which he shall be handed over to a member of his family, to an appointed guardian or to an institution for receiving children.

Joint flights of EEA Member States

Article 119

(1) The Ministry shall organise and take part in joint flights of the EEA Member States for the purpose of removal (forced return) by air.

Assistance to an EEA Member State in the case of removal (forced return) by air

Article 120

(1) At the request of the competent bodies of an EEA Member State, the Ministry shall provide assistance in the case of transit for the purpose of removal (forced return) by air.

(2) The request for assistance referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be rejected if:

1. if an alien subject to removal (forced return) was accused in the Republic of Croatia of having committed a criminal offence or if a warrant for his arraignment was issued, so that he might start serving his prison sentence,
2. if it is not possible to organise transit through other states or admission in the country of destination,
3. if it is necessary to change flights in the Republic of Croatia from one airport to another,
4. if removal (forced return) is not possible for practical reasons,
5. if an alien subject to removal (forced return) poses a threat to public policy, national security, public health, or if that would be contrary to the international interests of the Republic of Croatia
6. in the event referred to in Article 118 of this Act.

(3) The provision of assistance referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be discontinued if the grounds referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article are subsequently discovered.

Article 121

(1) A request referred to in Article 120, paragraph 1 of this Act shall not have to be approved if:

1. an alien may be subject to removal (forced return) by a direct flight to the country of destination,
2. the request was not submitted at the latest 2 days before transit,
3. the request was not submitted on the prescribed form,
4. the request is incomplete,
5. the transit will take more than 24 hours.

(2) In particularly urgent and well-founded cases referred to in paragraph 1, items 1 and 2 of this Article, the request shall be approved.

Article 122

(1) Notification of a decision on the request referred to in Articles 120 and 121 of this Act shall be submitted within two days, and in justified cases the term may be extended by two more days.

(2) The decision rejecting the request for assistance must include an explanation.

Restricting the freedom of movement

Article 123

(1) An alien may be arraigned and detained for up to 24 hours if necessary to ensure his presence in the process of expulsion and termination of short-term stay, and cancellation of the postponement of removal (forced return).

(2) An alien subject to removal (forced return) may be arraigned and detained for up to 48 hours.

(3) After arraignment, the alien shall immediately be notified of the reasons for arraignment and that he may request the diplomatic mission or consular post of the state of his nationality to be notified of the arraignment.

(4) The competent body of social welfare and the diplomatic mission or consular post of the state of nationality shall immediately be notified of the arraignment of an unaccompanied minor who is an alien.

(5) An alien shall be released as soon as the grounds for arraignment and detention cease to exist, and at the latest by the end of the time limit referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, except where actions are being taken to enforce removal (forced return) or where the decision on accommodation in the reception centre for aliens was issued.

Preliminary accommodation in the centre

Article 124

(1) An alien may have his freedom of movement restricted by accommodation in the centre in order to ensure his presence in the procedure of issuing a decision on expulsion, if the alien is considered to be a threat to national security or if he was convicted for a criminal offence prosecuted in the line of duty.

(2) An alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be accommodated in the centre if it is reasonably expected that the same purpose can be achieved by applying the obligations stipulated in Article 136, paragraph 3 of this Act.

(3) Accommodation in the centre referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be for a time period of 3 months.

Regular accommodation in the centre

Article 125

(1) An alien shall have his freedom of movement restricted by accommodation in the centre if removal (forced return) cannot be carried out immediately, and:

1. he failed to leave the Republic of Croatia within the deadline set in the decision on return from the Republic of Croatia,
2. the deadline for leaving the Republic of Croatia was not set in accordance with Article 112, paragraph 2 of this Act,
3. there is a reasonable doubt that the alien is not under age
4. for the purpose of establishing identity.

(2) An alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be accommodated in the centre if it is justifiably expected that the same purpose can be achieved by applying the obligations stipulated in Article 136, paragraph 3 of this Act.

(3) Accommodation in the centre referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be for a time period of 6 months.

Extending the accommodation in the centre

Article 126

(1) By way of derogation from Article 125 of this Act, accommodation of an alien in the centre may be extended by 12 more months if:

- 1.. the alien refused to provide personal or other information and documents required for removal (forced return) or provided false information,
2. the alien prevented or stalled the removal (forced return) in some other way,
- 3.. the delivery of travel and other documents required for removal (forced return), which were requested from the competent bodies of another state, is justifiably expected.

Adopting a decision on accommodation in the centre and legal remedies

Article 127

(1) The decision on accommodation in the centre shall be adopted by the police administration or police station.

(2) The decision extending accommodation shall be issued by the centre.

(3) An appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article is not permissible, but an administrative dispute may be initiated. The administrative court shall issue a decision concerning the complaint against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article after an oral hearing within 15 days of the date of delivery of the case file. A complaint shall not postpone enforcement of the decision.

(4) At the latest 10 days before the expiration of the term of 3 months from the date of accommodation of the alien in the centre the centre shall submit to the administrative court the case file on the accommodation of the alien in the centre. The administrative court shall decide within 10 days of the date of submission of the case file whether the alien should be released from the centre.

(5) The centre shall submit the case file extending an alien's accommodation to the administrative court immediately after the issuing of the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article. The administrative court shall adopt a decision after a verbal discussion within 15 days of the submission of the case file by which the decision extending an alien's accommodation is nullified or confirmed.

Authority to carry out searches

Article 128

(1) In the procedure of removal (forced return) or accommodation in the centre, police officers shall be authorised to search an alien and his personal effects without a court warrant for the purpose of finding and taking any objects that might be used in an attack, self-injury or escape.

Rights and obligations of an alien

Article 129

(1) An alien may not leave the centre without an approval and shall comply with the house rules of the centre.

(2) An alien in the centre is entitled to health protection in accordance with a special regulation.

Stricter police supervision

Article 130

(1) An alien who leaves the centre without an approval, an alien justifiably suspected of wanting to leave the centre, an alien justifiably suspected of wanting to injure himself or others, and an alien who does not comply with the house rules, shall be subject to accommodation in the centre under stricter police control for at most up to 30 days.

(2) An alien referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be accommodated separately from other aliens and his freedom of movement within the centre shall be restricted.

(3) The centre shall issue a decision setting out stricter police supervision, against which an appeal is not permissible, but an administrative dispute may be initiated.

(4) The administrative court shall issue a decision on the complaint against the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article within 15 days of the submission of the case file. The complaint shall not postpone enforcement of the decision.

Termination of accommodation in the centre

Article 131

(1) Accommodation in the centre shall terminate:

1. on removal (forced return),
2. on expiration of the time period of accommodation ordered,
3. if the stay of an alien becomes legal,
4. on annulment of the decision on accommodation in the centre,
5. on release from the centre.

(2) A alien shall be released from the centre if:

1. it is evident from the circumstances that removal (forced return) will not be enforceable,
2. he was accommodated in the centre pursuant to Article 124 of this Act, and the decision on expulsion became enforceable and a new decision on accommodation was not adopted,
3. he was accommodated in the centre pursuant to Article 125, paragraph 1, item 4 of this Act, and his identity was established and a new decision on accommodation was not adopted,
4. the administrative court decided that the alien should be released from the centre.

Procedure with minors

Article 132

(1) An unaccompanied minor and an alien under age and members of his family may be accommodated in the centre only if removal (forced return) cannot be ensured in some other way.

(2) Aliens referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be accommodated in the centre separately from other aliens in rooms which are appropriate for the accommodation of minors.

(3) Members of the same family shall be accommodated in a separate room in the centre.

(4) Accommodation of aliens referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in the centre may not be extended.

(5) Stricter police supervision may also be imposed on a minor, but only together with his parent or legal representative.

(6) Minors in the centre shall be provided with conditions appropriate to their age, and with the right to schooling in accordance with a special regulation.

(7) If in view of a particularly large number of aliens over an extended period of time it is not possible to ensure separate rooms, members of the same family shall be accommodated in the centre regardless of the criteria referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article.

(8) If there is a reasonable doubt as to whether a particular alien who should be accommodated in the centre is under age, the testing of the person's age may be carried out.

Compensation of costs of removal (forced return)

Article 133

- (1) An alien shall bear the cost of accommodation in the centre and other costs incurred during his removal (forced return).
- (2) All pecuniary means shall be taken from an alien subject to removal (forced return), subject to the issuance of a certificate.
- (3) The pecuniary means taken from an alien shall be used to settle the costs of his removal (forced return).
- (4) In order to ensure removal (forced return), the travel and other documents of an alien, as well as his travel tickets, may be taken from the alien, subject to the issuance of a certificate.

Article 134

(1) If an alien does not have funds for the costs referred to in Article 133, paragraph 1 of this Act, the costs shall be borne by:

1. a natural or legal person who illegally guided the alien or tried to guide the alien across the state border or who helped or tried to help the alien to cross the state border illegally, to make a transit or to stay,
2. a natural or legal person who assumed the obligation to bear the costs of the alien during his stay,
3. the carrier who did not transport the alien in accordance with Article 41 of this Act,
4. the employer who employed the alien contrary to the provisions of this Act,
5. the organiser of tourist or business trips referred to in Article 42 of this Act.

(2) The obligation to pay the costs shall also exist if an alien was not subject to removal (forced return), unless there are grounds referred to in Article 118 of this Act.

(3) A decision shall be adopted concerning an amount of the costs of removal (forced return) referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Compensation of costs between EEA Member States

Article 135

(1) The costs of removal (forced return) of an alien who does not have any funds, and who was subject to removal (forced return) in accordance with Article 117 of this Act, shall be settled by the state that issued the decision on expulsion.

(2) The deadline for submitting a request for the settlement of costs referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article is one year of the date of removal (forced return).

(3) Where more than 4 years elapsed from the enforceability of the decision on expulsion to the removal (forced return) of an alien, the request for settlement shall not be approved.

(4) The costs of providing the assistance referred to in Articles 120, 121 and 122 of this Act shall be collected from the state that submitted the request.

Postponement of removal (forced return)

Article 136

(1) Removal (forced return) shall be postponed if there are grounds for the prohibition of removal (forced return).

(2) Removal (forced return) may be postponed where an alien's identity was not established, where transport is not possible, where serious difficulties would arise in view of the alien's health or if there are other reasons why the alien cannot be subject to removal (forced return).

(3) The decision on postponement of removal (forced return) may stipulate the following obligations of the alien:

1. to deposit travel documents, travel papers and travel tickets,
2. to deposit certain funds,
3. to prohibit the leaving of a particular address,
4. to register to a police station at a particular time.

(4) An alien whose removal (forced return) was postponed shall be provided with a document which he must return at the request of the body referred to in Article 137, paragraph 2 of this Act.

(5) An alien whose removal (forced return) was postponed shall not be released from the obligation to leave the Republic of Croatia.

(6) An alien whose removal (forced return) was postponed is entitled to health protection in accordance with a special regulation.

(7) An alien under age whose removal (forced return) was postponed has the right to schooling in accordance with a special regulation.

Article 137

(1) Postponement of removal (forced return) shall be annulled if the grounds for the postponement of removal (forced return) referred to in Article 136, paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Act ceased to exist or if the alien fails to comply with the obligations referred to in Article 136, paragraph 3 of this Act.

(2) The police administration or police station shall adopt the decision on postponement of removal (forced return) and the decision of annulment of postponement of removal (forced return), which shall be in force for a period of 6 months of the date of its adoption. The decision of annulment of postponement of removal (forced return) may be adopted without a prior interview with the alien.

(3) An appeal may be filed against a decision on the postponement of removal (forced return) and a decision annulling the postponement of removal (forced return), where the Commission shall decide about the appeal. An appeal shall not postpone enforcement of the decision.

Termination of the postponement of removal (forced return)

Article 138

(1) Postponement of removal (forced return) shall terminate:

1. on expiration of the time period of the postponement of removal (forced return) stipulated,
2. on cancellation of the decision on postponement of removal (forced return),
3. if the stay of the alien became legal.

(2) An alien referred to in paragraph 1, item 1 of this Article shall be subject to removal (forced return) or accommodated in the centre.

VII IDENTITY DOCUMENTS

Article 139

An alien shall prove his identity by means of:

1. a travel document,
2. a personal identity card for aliens,
3. a document issued by a shipping company to passengers on cruise ships and containing a photograph,
4. some other public document containing a photograph.

(2) An alien shall be obliged to carry and produce a document proving his identity at the request of an official person.

(3) An alien shall present a travel or other document used to cross the state border at the request of an official person.

(4) An alien not carrying an identity document shall present personal data at the request of a police officer.

(5) An alien may not allow other persons to use his documents, and he may not use invalid documents or another person's documents as his own.

Article 140

(1) An identity card for aliens shall be issued to an alien who was granted temporary stay for the time period of his approved temporary stay.

(2) An identity card for an alien who was granted permanent stay shall be issued for the term of validity of five years.

Article 141

(1) An identity card referred to in Article 140 of this Act shall be issued to aliens who turned the age of 12.

Article 142

(1) A personal identity card for aliens shall be replaced:

1. if there is a change of data,
2. if it does not serve its purpose due to its damaged or worn out condition,
3. if the photograph on the personal identity card no longer corresponds to the person's appearance,
4. upon the expiry of the validity period.

(2) An application for the replacement of the personal identity card for aliens shall be submitted within eight days of the day of the occurrence of the circumstances referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Article 143

(1) An alien shall be obliged to return the personal identity card for aliens in the following cases:

1. emigration,
2. termination of stay,
3. the acquisition of Croatian citizenship.

Article 144

(1) An alien shall be obliged to report without any delay the loss, disappearance or theft of the travel document or the personal identity card for aliens to the police administration or police station based on the location of the incident or the place where the alien realised what happened, where a certificate thereof shall be issued.

(2) An alien who loses or in some other way misplaces his travel document for aliens or his identity card for aliens abroad shall be obliged to immediately notify the nearest diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Croatia thereof.

Article 145

(1) The police administration or police station shall temporarily seize the travel document of an alien if:

1. there is a reasonable doubt that he committed a criminal offence which is prosecuted in the line of duty or a misdemeanour,
2. he failed to perform his mature property and legal obligation at a request of the competent court or another competent authority,
3. required on the grounds of protecting public policy, national security or public health.

(2) The document referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be retained for as long as there are grounds for its seizure, where a certificate thereof shall be issued.

VIII REGISTRATION OF STAY

Article 146

(1) Temporary residence means a place where an alien holding a temporary or permanent stay permit is staying.

(2) Permanent residence means a place where an alien holding a permanent stay permit settled with the intention of living there permanently.

(3) An alien on approved permanent stay, along with permanent residence, may also register his temporary residence at a place where he stays habitually, but without an intention of settling there.

(4) An alien on short-term stay shall register where he is accommodated in accordance with Article 147 of this Act.

Article 147

(1) An alien on short-term stay shall register where he is accommodated within two days of entry to the Republic of Croatia or of the day he changes his accommodation.

(2) By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of this Article, a legal and natural person providing the accommodation to an alien (accommodation provider) shall register the accommodation of the alien on short-term stay within one day of the arrival of the alien for accommodation.

(3) The provision of paragraph 2 of this Article shall also apply accordingly to the following:

1. medical institutions admitting aliens for treatment,
2. tourist communities if they received a report on the registration of the alien.

(4) If the service provider at the time of arrival of an alien for accommodation is not in the Republic of Croatia or if the registration of accommodation cannot be performed in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article for any other reason, the accommodation is to be registered in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article.

(5) The registration shall be submitted to the police administration or police station based on the place of accommodation of an alien, and may also be carried out electronically, on the Internet, as prescribed.

(6) Registration of an alien who is to be accommodated on a vessel shall be submitted:

- to the police station competent for controlling the crossing of the state border in a port in which border control is performed if the alien is making the entry in a vessel on which he is to stay,
- to the police administration or police station based on the place of boarding of the alien.

(7) Persons obligated to register accommodation in accordance with paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 of this Article shall provide complete and accurate information in the alien accommodation registration form and submit any information about the change of duration of such accommodation without any delay.

(8) Persons obligated to register accommodation in accordance with paragraph 3 of this Article, shall deliver the registration to the police administration or police station within 24 hours.

Article 148

(1) An alien on temporary stay shall register his temporary residence and address at which he is staying and any change of his temporary residence and address at which he is staying within three days of entry in the Republic of Croatia or of the day of changing his temporary residence or address at which he is staying, respectively.

(2) An alien on permanent stay shall register his permanent residence, temporary residence and address at which he is staying, and any change of his permanent residence, temporary residence and address at which he is staying, within eight days of the day of making the change.

(3) An alien assigned to work outside the place of temporary residence or permanent residence by a decision of the employer shall not have to perform the obligation referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, provided that the work shall not last in excess of 90 days.

(4) In the case referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, the employer shall notify the competent police administration or police station thereof within three days.

(5) The provisions of this Act on the registration of accommodation of aliens on short-term stay shall apply accordingly to aliens on temporary and permanent stay.

Article 149

An alien referred to in Article 148, paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Act shall cancel the address at which he is staying, temporary residence or permanent residence at the latest within 3 days of the date of departing from such address, temporary residence or permanent residence.

Article 150

(1) Legal and natural persons providing the services of accommodation to aliens shall keep a record of aliens in accordance with special regulations.

(2) Persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall provide data from the record of aliens for review to an official person of the competent body.

IX MOVEMENT OF ALIENS IN UNIFORM

Article 151

(1) During their stay in the Republic of Croatia, aliens may travel in foreign military uniforms if:

1. they are staying as members of a diplomatic mission or consular post of a foreign country or some other foreign mission with a diplomatic status in the Republic of Croatia as military representatives while the mission is under way,
2. they are on an official visit as members of a foreign military mission or foreign military delegation,
3. they are studying at a military school,
4. they are passing through the territory of the Republic of Croatia as members of foreign military missions or foreign military delegations with diplomatic or official passports,
5. they are participants in foreign military exercises and training.

Article 152

(1) During their stay in the Republic of Croatia, aliens may travel in foreign police or customs uniforms if:

1. they are on an official visit as members of delegations of foreign police or customs authorities,
2. they are carrying out their duties on the basis of an international treaty,
3. they are studying at a police academy,
4. they are passing through the territory of the Republic of Croatia as members of foreign police or foreign customs delegations with diplomatic or official passports.

X. ENTRY, STAY AND WORK OF NATIONALS OF EEA MEMBER STATES AND THEIR FAMILY MEMBERS

Article 153

(1) A national of an EEA Member State and members of his family, regardless whether they are nationals of an EEA Member State or not, provided that they are entitled to stay in the Republic of Croatia, shall have equal rights as nationals of the Republic of Croatia in accordance with the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

(2) Nationals of EEA Member States and members of their family may work and provide services in the Republic of Croatia without a stay and work permit or a work registration certificate.

(3) The provisions of this Act relating to nationals of EEA Member States also relate to nationals of the Swiss Confederation.

(4) The provisions of this Act relating to the family members of a national of an EEA Member State shall apply to aliens-family members of Croatian nationals.

Entry and departure of nationals of EEA Member States from the Republic of Croatia

Article 154

(1) A national of an EEA Member State may enter the Republic of Croatia, provided that:

1. he holds a valid travel document or personal identity card,
2. he is not barred by the prohibition of entry and stay,
3. he does not pose a threat to public policy, national security or public health.

(2) A national of an EEA Member State may enter the Republic of Croatia without a visa or without an approval of stay.

(3) If a national of an EEA Member State does not hold the documents referred to in paragraph 1, item 1 of this Article, the border police officer shall provide him with an opportunity to obtain the required documents or to prove that he is a national of the EEA Member State in some other way.

(4) A national of an EEA Member State holding a valid travel document or personal identity card is entitled to leave the Republic of Croatia in order to travel to another Member State.

Short-term stay of nationals of EEA Member States

Article 155

(1) A national of an EEA Member State shall have the right to stay in the Republic of Croatia for a period which shall not exceed three months from the day of entry into the Republic of Croatia, provided that he holds a valid travel document or personal identity card.

Temporary stay of nationals of EEA Member States

Article 156

(1) A national of an EEA Member State is entitled to stay in the Republic of Croatia for more than three months of the day of entry into the Republic of Croatia, provided that:

1. he is employed or self-employed,
2. he has sufficient resources to maintain himself and members of his family, so that during their stay in the Republic of Croatia they would not become a burden to the social welfare system, and he has health insurance,
3. he is enrolled as a university student or occupational trainee and has adequate health insurance, and by issuing a statement proves that he has sufficient resources to support himself and members of his family, so that during their stay in the Republic of Croatia they would not become a burden to the social welfare system,
4. he is a member of a family joining a national of an EEA Member State who meets the criteria referred to in items 1, 2 and 3 of this paragraph.

(2) At the time of an evaluation whether the funds for supporting oneself referred to in paragraph 1, items 2 and 3 of this Article are sufficient, the personal position of a national of an EEA Member State and his family members shall be taken into account and they shall not be required to amount to more than the amount of funds required for the realisation of rights under the social welfare system in the Republic of Croatia in accordance with special regulations.

Article 157

(1) A national of an EEA Member State intending to stay in the Republic of Croatia for a period over three months shall register his temporary stay with the competent police administration or police station based on the place of stay at the latest within eight days of the expiration of three months of stay.

(2) The police administration or police station shall issue a certificate of the registration of temporary stay referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article without any delay.

Certificate of the registration of temporary stay of a national of an EEA Member State for the purpose of work

Article 158

(1) A national of an EEA Member State referred to in Article 156, paragraph 1, item 1 of this Act shall be provided with a certificate of the registration of temporary stay, provided that he is in the possession of the following:

1. a valid personal identity card or travel document,
2. a certificate of employment or proof of self-employment.

Article 159

(1) A national of an EEA Member State who becomes unemployed shall retain the status of employee or self-employed person, provided that:

1. he is temporarily incapable of work in view of illness or accident,
