

European Directive 2004/38/EC

For people who traveling together with the EEA (European Economic Area) or EU family member ; or joining the EEA or EU family member

Be noted if you applying for visa when traveling alone/without the EEA or EU family member you will have to apply under the normal Type C / Short Stay / Schengen - visa regulations and provide a complete application with all supporting documents as required (the only exception being proof of insurance).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

The duration of the presented flight reservation and insurance must always correspond.

In case of different or contradictory information, the embassy will issue a visa with a validity based on the shortest period of these 2 documents.

Starting date of the validity of the visa will always be the starting date of the initially presented flight reservation.

Documents in Farsi language only are not accepted for the treatment of your visa file; only translated documents will be taken into account.

The Farsi documents need to be translated by a sworn translator into one of our national languages or into English.

In case the authorization to issue the visa arrives after the initially planned departure date, you will be contacted by the embassy.
