	Passport, original
	A national private passport or other official travel document, which should be issued less than 10 years ago.
	1. Check the expiration date on your passport: the passport should be valid for at least 3 months after the planned departure date from the Schengen area. If multi-entry visa is needed, the above mentioned departure date means the last departure date from the Schengen area.
	2. Make sure your passport has two or more completely blank and unmarked visa pages (blank pages do not need to be adjoining pages).
	3. Make sure your passport has not been altered:
	Check if the original laminated film (the transparent safety film) that covers the passport photo) has been tampered with. If this is the case, you must ask a passport-issuing authority to retamper your passport.
13	 Make sure no pages or surfaces have been laminated (as this
-	will invalidate your passport).
	Check for scratches or alteration 4. If your passport was issued over 10 years ago, even if it is still valid at the time you submit your visa application, you must apply for a new passport from the authorities or the Embassy or Consulate of your country of origin, before being able to apply for a visa.
	5. The passport must be signed by its owner with an official signature in all the required places, otherwise, your application can not be accepted by the visa application center. applicants who are 10 years old or older have to sign their passport by themselves; that passports of applicants who are minors and under 10 years old can, but do not need to be signed; passports of applicants who are minors must NOT be signed by their parents.
	 These rules do not apply for newly issued Chinese passports with electronic signature
