The contract must last for at least 12 months. Hence, the foreign national must have already a valid job offer or employment contract and it is not seeking a job in the Portuguese territory. As for any residence visa, the D1 visa grants two entries in Portugal to the visa holder, being valid for a period of 4 months (120 days). During that period, the visa holder is required to apply for a residency permit with the competent Portuguese authorities: https://imigrante.sef.pt/en/solicitar/trabalhar/art88-1/ What is the standard processing time of a D1 visa application? The standard processing time of a D1 visa application is 60 (sixty) calendar days. This period starts counting only when the application reaches the Consular Section of the Embassy of Portugal in New Delhi (the visa application will need up to two working days to reach the Consular Section Embassy of Portugal in New Delhi) and that public holidays of the Embassy of Portugal in New Delhi as announced on its website will not count as working days. Procedure to be followed to submit a D1 visa application at VFS Global D1 visa applications are not open for appointments at VFS Global, so that applicants cannot book their own appointments for this visa category. Applicants will be informed directly by VFS on their personal email IDs about their appointments at VFS in New Delhi. The date of the appointments is decided by the Visa Department of the Consular Section of the Embassy of Portugal in New Delhi, based on the availability of slots and taking into

account the order of reception of the requests by the Portuguese companies. Companies must ensure that they request the appointments timely. Slots are not given on the basis that applicants are in New Delhi at that moment; the dates are decided by the Embassy of Portugal in New Delhi. The requests are always confirmed with the company by the Embassy of Portugal in New Delhi.
