D8 VISA: What it is?

The D8 visa is a residence visa aimed at the family member(s) of the "main" residence visa applicant (for any residence visa category, except – job seeker visa – which does not entitle the family members to apply for a D8 visa), allowing them to also apply for residence in Portugal. The D8 visa is not intended for family members of legal residents in Portugal.

Therefore, the D8 visa application is assessed at the same time as that of the residence visa application of "main" family member. D8 applicants do not need to get an appointment at VFS to submit their visa application. Only the main residence visa must have an appointment and his/her family member(s) shall submit their visa application(s) on the same date.

Only the following family members of the main residence visa applicant are entitled to apply for a D8 visa:

- The spouse (or the partner) in the case of a non-marital partnership, provided that non-marital partnerships are recognised by law in the country of the national);
- The children under the age of 18 years old, either of the applicant or of his/her spouse, as well as minors adopted by the applicant and/or by his/her spouse, as a result of a decision by the competent authority of the country of origin, provided that the law of that country recognises to the adopted the rights and duties identical to those of natural filiation, and in which the decision is recognized by Portugal;
- The children older than 18 years old, provided that they are financially dependent of the main visa applicant and/or his/her spouse, and provided that they are single and are studying at an educational institution in Portugal;
- The children older than 18 years old, provided that they are financially dependent of the main visa applicant and/or his/her spouse, and provided that they are single and are they are studying, as long as the holder of the right to family reunion is the bearer of a residence permit issued under the article 90.º-A (Decree-Law no. 90/2022, of 30th December);
- The direct ascendants (parents) of the main applicant or the direct ascendants (parents) of his/her spouse, as long as they are financially dependent on the applicant (or financially dependent on the spouse);
- Siblings of the main applicant, as long as they are minors and are under the guardianship of the main applicant, in accordance with the decision made by the competent authority of the country of origin and as long as this decision is recognised by Portugal.

As for any residence visa, the D8 visa grants two entries in Portugal to the visa holder, being valid for a period of four months (120 days). During that period, the visa holder is required to apply for a residency permit with the competent Portuguese authorities: <https://aima.gov.pt/pt/viver/autorizacao-de-residencia-regime-e-requisitos-gerais-art-o-77-o-n-o-1>

What is the standard processing time of a D8 visa application?

The standard processing time of a D8 visa application is 60 (sixty) days, which may be prolonged if necessary. The D8 visa application is assessed together with the residence visa application of the main family member/main applicant. Please note that this period starts counting only when the application reaches the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa (the visa application will need up to two working days to reach the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa) and that public holidays of the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa as announced on its website will not count as working days.

General remarks of the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa:

- Submission of the above-mentioned mandatory documents does not guarantee that a visa is granted. The required documents have to be submitted with the visa application (documents sent through e-mail or post to the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa are not accepted, unless if required).
- The Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa reserves the right to ask for additional documents and/or for a personal interview. The Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa is not however obliged to ask for submittal of documents already mentioned on this list before denying an application.
- Submission of incomplete documentation may result in the rejection of an application.
- If the Consular Post requests additional documents or missing documents from the applicant, the examination of the application is suspended until their submission.
- Any false statement will result in the refusal of the visa application or the annulment of a visa that has already been granted and may subject me to legal action under Portuguese law.
- All communications and notifications regarding the visa application may be sent to the electronic address indicated in field 19 of the visa application form, and shall be considered to have been made, pursuant to and for the purposes of article 113 (5 and 6) of the Code of Administrative Procedure, from the moment the applicant accesses the specific mail sent or, in the event of no access to the electronic mailbox, on the fifth working day after it is sent.
- Please note that the standard processing time of a D8 visa application is of 60 (sixty) days. This period starts counting only when the application reaches the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa (the visa application will need up to two working days to reach the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa) and that public holidays of the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa as announced on its website will not count as working days.
- This period can be prolonged by the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa if deemed necessary for a personal interview, scrutiny/verification documents, among other reasons.
- Visa applications should be submitted in advance to ensure time for competent authorities to deliver a decision.
- A booked flight ticket does not result in a preferred processing of the application.
- All documents, forms and declarations must be submitted either in Portuguese or English. All documents, forms and declarations not in Portuguese or English have to be submitted with proper Portuguese or English translation. Failing to provide proper translation will result in the document, form or declaration considered "missing".
- The refusal of the visa application does not entail the reimbursement of the visa fees.
- Consult the legislation in force at the following hyperlink:

Declaration of the visa applicant (to be signed by the parent(s) submitting the application if applicant is a minor)

I have taken note of the general and special remarks as mentioned on checklist.

I have been informed that VFS Global does not have any influence on the decision about a visa application and only the information provided by the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa must be taken as official.

I confirm that the VFS officer has noted all documents submitted by me and that I want the application in its present form to be forwarded to the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa. I am aware that original documents not submitted with a copy will be kept by the Consulate-General of Portugal in Goa.
