

Medical treatment – Visa Requirements

Please note that only Indonesian citizens or foreign residents (KITAS holders) in Indonesia may apply for a Schengen visa with the Embassy of Switzerland in Indonesia.

If you have a short-term visa (e.g. Social/Cultural Visit Visa) for Indonesia, you must apply for the Schengen visa in your country of residence.

Requirements for medical treatment Visa (All original documents must be presented along with a photocopy):

1. A Schengen visa application form, duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. It is free of charge and can be downloaded from our visa webpage. In case of minors, both parents have to sign the visa application form. Incomplete forms will not be accepted and may result in refusal of your visa. Please indicate your e-mail address as well as your contact phone number in case additional information is required;
2. Duly signed passport, which is valid for at least three (3) months beyond your intended stay in the Schengen area and with at least two empty pages. If available, please provide with copies of your previous passports as well;
3. Two (2) recent, colour, passport photos taken on a bright background. Please refer to Schengen photo requirements on our visa webpage;
4. Declaration of consent to a visa-application procedure with employment of internal or external couriers. It can be downloaded from our visa webpage and must be duly filled in and signed;
5. Confirmed flight reservation(s) to the Schengen area including return to Indonesia. If you visit Switzerland and other Schengen countries, please submit also flight, car or rail reservations made for traveling within the Schengen area (complete Schengen itinerary).
6. Travel health insurance with a minimum coverage of EUR 30,000 covering the whole period of stay in the Schengen area with an additional 'period of grace' of 15 days. It should cover emergency medical expenses, emergency hospital treatment as well as repatriation for medical reasons. Please refer to the accepted list of travel insurance on our visa webpage;
7. Signed confirmation of hospital admission or formal appointment of the doctor in Switzerland e-mailed directly to the Embassy. It should state the name and passport number of the patient as well as the purpose and the estimated duration of the stay as well as the related cost. The letter must also state that the cost of the treatment has already been paid, a deposit has been paid or that a third party (insurance, hospital, etc.) has guaranteed the cost.
8. Work statement mentioning the starting date and duration of employment within the company and the applicant's position and salary. This statement must indicate the authorized leave, must be in English and must be signed by the employer;
9. For self-employed: copy of the business registration excerpt and copy of the last tax declaration;
10. Last three (3) months' salary slips;
11. Original bank statements of the last 3 months and one (1) photocopy for the visa application file;
12. Depending on your itinerary, a valid visa in your travel document for the country you are visiting after leaving the Schengen area;
13. One (1) photocopy of the passport (pages with the personal data and copies of any previous Schengen/USA/UK visa only);

14. For foreigners: photocopy of the residence permit in the country of residence and a valid exit and re-entry permit;
15. Minors travelling alone must submit an authorization letter in English signed by both parents with a copy of their passports or IDs;
16. Evidence of actual family situation of the applicant (marriage certificate, birth certificate, family card, etc.);
17. Visa fees (please refer to our visa webpage).

The Embassy of Switzerland reserves the right to request additional documents.

The submission of a complete file does not guarantee the granting of a visa.

In case of a visa refusal, the Embassy of Switzerland is not liable for any costs that might have occurred in the application process.

In case of the application being rejected, the applicant will get a refusal notification. The applicant may appeal within 30 days from notification with the State Secretariat for Migration SEM, 3003 Bern, after the advance payment of an administrative fee of CHF 200.00 (Art. 63 of the Federal Act on Administrative Procedure APA, SR 172.021). The SEM shall issue a contestable decision.
